

SACRED SPACES:

Jewish Cemeteries—Past, Present and Future

A Jewish cemetery is desecrated in St. Louis, Muslims raise $200,000. A pipeline is planned through Native-American burial grounds, protesters set up camp. A Jew travels to Europe, skips the Eiffel Tower to visit the cemetery. From many vantage points, we begin the conversation about the sacredness and significance of Jewish cemeteries.

---

Wednesday, November 15 at 7:30 PM

How We Think About Cemeteries

Featuring:

Lynn Greenhough, author of "We Do the Best We Can: Jewish Burial Societies in Small Communities in North America"

Kim Wheatley, Anishinaabe Cultural Consultant

---

Tuesday, November 21 at 7:30 PM

Where the Only Jews Are Dead: Jewish Cemeteries in Bygone Communities

Featuring:

Michael Lozman, Founder, Restoration of Eastern European Jewish Cemeteries Project (<http://restorejcem.org>)

---

UPCOMING SESSIONS:

Wednesday, November 29

Toronto and the Future of Jewish Burial

Wednesday, December 6

What Happens When I Die? Practical Answers to a Theological Question

---

Events feature audio-visual presentations and discussions. Moderated by Rabbi Adam Cutler.

Generously sponsored by Benjamin's Park Memorial Chapel