

Session 4: Life on the Mission Field - Witness and Service in 21st Century America (Acts)

Historically, the spread of the Gospel has flourished during times of repression and persecution. Self-care practices of the first missionary communities will be studied as examples for those called to serve in an environment of increasing hostility to the Gospel.