

Posting Title: Executive Director - Camp Ministry

Lutheran Outdoor Ministries of Northern California, known as Mt. Cross, is seeking an Executive Director to pioneer a vibrant and faithful outdoor ministry based out of the redwood forests of the Santa Cruz Mountains. Mt. Cross is a place of restoration and renewal where two denominations are working together in ministry for the people of Northern California and beyond. In this place, many are being called to the waters of baptism; Mt. Cross is known as a place that produces disciples and powerful leaders. We seek a leader for our community who is called to relationship building, leadership development, innovative programming, and the radical hospitality as taught to us by Jesus Christ. A full site profile, job description, and application can be found at <http://www.mtcross.org/employment>

The Search Committee will be receiving applications until April 30th after which time we will begin conducting interviews. Thank you in advance for your interest.
