I have been an active member of the BBG for the last 5 years and I am excited by the prospect of committing another year to the BBG committee. This year myself and the membership team want to work with existing members to boost attendance and involvement within the group.

Although the BBG is very sociable, it is first and foremost a business group and the aim of members should be to generate business and assist others in generating business.

We all want to see new faces at our events – let's make that happen.
