

Congregation Eitz Or
Seattle's Jewish Renewal Community
PO Box 15480, Seattle, WA 98115
Phone: 206-467-2617
info@eitzor.org

Please join us for another special Eitz Or Erev Shabbat home meal and Neo-Hasidic Tish* with Panim Hadashot-New Faces' Heart of Shabbat Ensemble led by Rabbi Dov Gartenberg and guitarist, Ari Joshua. (And we know Ari as "R. Arik's wife Aliza's multi-talented musical cousin!")

Friday, May 19th

6:30 PM Blessings, dinner, Tish
Hadiyah's son and daughter-in-law, Reuven and Wendy Carlyle, are graciously opening their home for this sweet Shabbat meal.
609 W. Prospect St on Queen Anne
(Directions below)

Please bring a hearty portion of a vegetarian potluck dish to share.

Eitz Or will welcome new faces and old together for this joyful evening of song, nigun (wordless melody), Torah talk, blessings and storytelling.

Panim Hadashot-New Faces' mission is to revitalize Jewish Home Hospitality practices including table singing, illuminating Torah discussion, and the joy of sharing our meal and gathering with new faces.

Bring your voices and ruach (spirit), and instruments if you'd like. Feel free to invite friends who would enjoy the warmth of this Shabbat hospitality circle.

*Tish: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tish_\(Hasidic_celebration\))
Panim Hadashot: <http://www.panimhadashot.org/>

Directions to 609 W. Prospect St.

There is no actual street address on W. Prospect but the street splits at 6th W and W. Prospect. The house is the blue one on the left side. Just walk in through the gate. Parking up and down W. Prospect, W. 6th or W. Highland. If trouble finding, please call Hadiyah at 206-271-4577.