Panim Hadashot-New Faces High Holiday Schedule for 2017

A Summary of Services and Special Programs

A registration form for High Holidays with Panim Hadashot-New Faces is at the end of this summary.

Introduction to High Holidays with Panim Hadashot-New Faces

Panim Hadashot-New Faces will offer High Holiday services at the Seattle Jewish Community School in the Pinehurst neighborhood in North Seattle. We will offer the beautifully crafted music of our Heart of Shabbat Ensemble to share both traditional and new Hebrew melodies of the High Holidays. Our Rabbi intersperses services with Kavanot—short commentaries on the liturgy and themes of the Days of Awe—to deepen the spiritual impact and to explore the insights and difficulties of these ancient texts we chant at this time of year.

Our aim is to encourage community singing and participation that stimulates the mind and the heart. Services are led by Rabbi Dov Gartenberg and Ari Joshua, master musician and leader of the Heart of Shabbat Ensemble. We expect to attract a very diverse group and hope that our emphasis on Jewish hospitality will make it possible for every participant to meet new faces and to start new friendships.

Children and teenagers are most welcome at all of our services and programs. We plan to have child care for children under eight and an activity center for children over eight during the first day of Rosh Hashannah, Kol Nidre, and Yom Kippur morning. We will take advantage of being in a school environment which has great resources for children's activities. Since we are at a school, there are playground facilities available. We will organize adult volunteers for playground supervision.

Rosh Hashannah Services and Special Programs

Our Rosh Hashannah services serve to prepare and immerse us in the ways of repentance, change, and reconciliation. To accomplish this, we have varied our Rosh Hashannah offerings. The Erev Rosh Hashannah Seder and Tish, the 1st Day services, the musical Tashlich, and the 2nd Day services are distinct events. The Wednesday evening and Thursday afternoon events revolve around food and music. The two services on Thursday and Friday morning differ significantly from each other, so that the second day offers different spiritual opportunities and challenges from the first. We believe you will be moved by each of these New Year's events with Panim Hadashot-New Faces.

Rosh Hashannah Seder and Tish, Wednesday evening, September 20th

The Panim Hadshot-New Faces Heart of Shabbat Ensemble shares old and new songs of the Days of Awe for an evening of celebration, spiritual preparation, and community singing in honor of the new year. Rabbi Gartenberg shares some insights about the upcoming days in a beautiful and moving musical introduction to the Days of Awe.

When: Wednesday, September 20, 2017, 7-9:30 PM

Where: The Seattle Jewish Community School, 12351 8th Ave NE (Pinehurst Neighborhood), Seattle, WA 98125

Cost: $24 per adults; $12 for children over 10. Food catered by the HeartBeet Organic Superfoods Café at <https://www.heartbeethappy.com/>. RSVP by Friday, September 16, 2017. Space is limited.

First Day Rosh Hashannah Services, Thursday morning, September 21st

The Rosh Hashannah Morning Service blends the traditional chanting of the Hebrew service with sharing of old and new melodies by the Heart of Shabbat Ensemble. The Shofar will blast 100 times. In addition to his Kavanot (brief explorations of the liturgy), Rabbi Gartenberg will offer a sermon that touches on a theme of our times in the framework of Jewish wisdom. Transliterations and translations of the Hebrew service are included.

When: Thursday, September 21, 2017, 9 AM-12:30 PM

Where: The Seattle Jewish Community School, 12351 8th Ave NE (Pinehurst Neighborhood), Seattle, WA 98125

Musical Tashlich-Casting Ceremony, Thursday afternoon, September 21st

Join us for this unique Tashlich ceremony and picnic led by the Heart of Shabbat Ensemble and featuring symbolic foods of the new year. We will gather in a protected shelter in Carkeek Park to eat, sing, and cast bread together. Bring your own nosh, and we will provide the symbolic foods and the music.

When: Thursday, September 21, 2017, 4-6 PM

Where: Carkeek Park Shelter #2 Link to map

Cost: This is free and open to the public.

Note: Please bring some bread to throw in Piper Creek. The ceremony will take place at 5:30 PM and involves a short downhill walk to the creek. Bring appropriate clothing for being outside.

Email: dov@panimhadashot.org | Web: www.panimhadashot.org

Second Day of Rosh Hashannah, Friday morning, September 22nd

The second day service will be different from the first day. The morning will be divided into two parts: First, a shorter contemplative service combining meditation, chant, and shofar blowing led by Rabbi Dov Gartenberg. The second part will be a text study of the great and troubling portion of the second day, The Binding of Isaac (Genesis, Chapter 22).

When: Friday, September 22, 2017, 9-11 AM

Where: The Seattle Jewish Community School, 12351 8th Ave NE (Pinehurst Neighborhood), Seattle, WA 98125

Feast Before the Fast: Se'udat Hamafseket, Friday afternoon, September 29th

Rabbi Gartenberg has pioneered the revival of ancient Jewish feasts. This feast, which is mentioned in the Talmud, took place in the late afternoon before Kol Nidre. This will be conducted as a seder, a ritual feast, featuring symbolic foods that point to the themes of the Day of Atonement. This meal is wonderful to share with family members and friends. A short “Teshuvah Stroll” will follow the meal to give time to ask forgiveness and or forgive a loved one or just spend some special time with yourself or others before this most awesome day.

When: Friday, September 29, 2017, 4-6 PM

Where: The Seattle Jewish Community School, 12351 8th Ave NE (Pinehurst Neighborhood), Seattle, WA 98125

Cost: $24 per adults; $12 for children over 10. Food catered by the HeartBeet Organic Superfoods Café at <https://www.heartbeethappy.com/>.

RSVP required by Monday, September 25, 2017. Space is limited, so reserve early. We will not be able to accommodate drop ins.

Yom Kippur Services

Our Yom Kippur services are designed to plumb the depths of the heart with powerful and moving music and chanting led by our Heart of Shabbat Ensemble. Rabbi Gartenberg will continue to offer Kavanot throughout the services, short commentaries illuminating the insights and difficulties of our ancient liturgy. We will include renditions of modern poetry, and songs of Leonard Cohen and other artists interspersed with the prayers of the Mahzor. All Yom Kippur services will take place at the Seattle Jewish Community School at 12351 8th Ave NE, Seattle, 98125

115 N. 85th St. Suite 202 PMB 20 | Seattle, WA 98103

Email: dov@panimhadashot.org | Web: www.panimhadashot.org

Kol Nidre, Friday evening, September 29th

The Kol Nidre services feature the beloved prayers and melodies inherited through the generations. The tone of the service will be contemplative and introspective. On this evening, you will also have an opportunity to learn more about the vision of Panim Hadashot-New Faces. Be prepared to be moved.

When: Friday evening, September 29th 6:30-9:00 PM

Yom Kippur Morning Services with Yizkor, Saturday morning, September 30th

Yizkor will take place close to 12 pm

The morning Yom Kippur service continues with the themes of sin and repentance from the night before. Yizkor is an opportunity to recall our loved ones who have passed away. We have prepared a service that will move you deeply. A break will follow the end of services from 1-2 pm

When: Saturday morning, September 30th 9 AM-1 PM

Yom Kippur Afternoon Study and Conversation Sessions, Saturday afternoon, September 30th

Study and discussion sessions will be offered in the afternoon.

2-3 PM: Spiritual, Moral, and Jewish Resilience in Chaotic Times. Rabbi Gartenberg will share texts in the Jewish tradition that offer insight and stimulate discussion.

3-4 PM: The Book of Jonah, chapter 1. In the afternoon of Yom Kippur we read the Book of Jonah. Chapter 1 confronts the issues of evasion of responsibility, depression, and the relationship between Jews and non-Jews. The discussion should make you forget you are fasting.

Yom Kippur Afternoon Services, Saturday afternoon, September 30th

The first hour will focus on the “Avodah” and the “Eleh Ezkerah” sections of Yom Kippur that usually occur earlier in the afternoon. We will explore the issues raised by these services, their spiritual value and challenges. In the second hour we will daven the afternoon service along with reading the Torah and chanting the Book of Jonah.

When: 4:30-6:30 PM

Yom Kippur Neilah-Closing Service with Final Shofar Blast and Havdallah, Saturday evening, September 30th

115 N. 85th St. Suite 202 PMB 20 | Seattle, WA 98103
Email: dov@panimhadashot.org | Web: www.panimhadashot.org

This is the most dramatic service of the year and brings Yom Kippur to a rousing ending. As with all our services we will deepen and enliven the praying with music and melody to lift our hearts as the gates close.

When: 6:40-7:45 pm

∞

Break the Fast Feast, Motzei Yom Kippur/Shabbat, Saturday evening, September 30th

We will serve orange juice and crackers for everyone at the end of the service. In addition, we will be offering a vegan feast for those who would like to stay and relax and enjoy the company of folks you met and prayed with. Reservations are required for the Break the Fast Feast.

When: 8:05 PM, after refreshments.

Where: The Seattle Jewish Community School, 12351 8th Ave NE (Pinehurst Neighborhood), Seattle, WA 98125

Cost: $24 per adults; $12 for children over 10. Food catered by the HeartBeet Organic Superfoods Café at <https://www.heartbeethealthy.com/>.

RSVP required by Monday, September 25, 2017.
