

Teri A. Simmons is a partner at Arnall Golden Gregory in Atlanta, Georgia, where she has practiced for 26 years. Arnall Golden Gregory employs 160 attorneys at its offices in Atlanta, Georgia and Washington DC. She directs the International and Immigration Practice Group, which focuses on the holistic representation of foreign owned companies in the US in the areas of corporate, employment, litigation, tax, intellectual property and immigration law. AGG maintains a nationally recognized Immigration practice with a specialization in complex business immigration matters, employer compliance, EB-5 and white collar crime/audit defense.

Ms. Simmons is also serving as an Adjunct Professor at the University of Georgia School of Law.

Ms. Simmons has represented companies as large as the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, for which she managed visa processing for thousands, as well as middle-sized companies and individual EB-5 Investors. She focuses her practice on the management of legal services supporting foreign-owned business entities and individuals investing in the United States in the areas of corporate, employment and immigration law. She manages companies' global immigration needs, as well as both U.S. immigrant and non-immigrant visa processing for businesses and families (temporary work visas and green cards) and the immigration consequences of mergers and acquisitions. Active in the international community, and fluent in both spoken and written German, Ms. Simmons served as AILA's Customs & Border Protection liaison chair for Atlanta Hartsfield Airport for many years, on the national AILA CBP committee and as Mentor Chair for Chapter Chairs of the American Immigration Lawyers Association. She chaired the Ga./Ala. Chapter of AILA from 1999- 2001. She currently serves on the national board of NGO Sister Cities International and as the former Mayoral appointed Chair of the Atlanta Sister Cities Commission, on the Boards of the Dean Rusk Center for International and Comparative Law, the German American Chamber of Commerce of the Southeastern U.S. and the German American Cultural Foundation.

Ms. Simmons' practice has been ranked by Legal 500 and Chambers and Partners for several years. Chambers also has ranked Ms. Simmons personally as one of the best immigration lawyers in Georgia. She is also recognized by Best Lawyers, Who's Who Legal, Super Lawyers and Georgia Trend magazine's Legal Elite. Ms. Simmons earned Bachelor's degrees in Mathematics and German Studies from Furman University; a Master's in German Studies from the University of Virginia; and a JD from the University of Ga. School of Law.

Ms. Simmons has published multiple articles on immigration law and speaks frequently for international and domestic Chambers of Commerce, the American Immigration Lawyers Association and community events. Articles published for the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA) include: Fundamentals of EB-5 Investor Visas in Immigration Practice Pointers, 2016-2017, Blanket L Petitions: An Overview, in AILA's Immigration Practice Toolbox, 5th Edition, E-1 Treaty Trader And E-2 Treaty Investor Visas in Immigration Practice Pointers, 2014-2015; The Strange Case of L-1 Visa/Petition Delinking and Blanket L Visas: Problems and Uncertainties in Immigration Practice Pointers, 2013-2014; B-1 Business Visitors in Immigration & Nationality Law Handbook (2006-07 ed.); Merger and Compliance Issues: How to Ensure Success Post-Filing in Immigration Practice Pointers, 2011-2012; H-1Bs and Third Party Worksites: I've a Feeling We're not in Kansas Anymore in Immigration Practice Pointers, 2010-2011; Keeping it in the Family: The Impact of Corporate Restructuring on Intracompany Transfers in Immigration & Nationality Law Handbook, 2008-2009 Edition, Tax and Business Considerations In The Selection of a Business Entity for Foreign Nationals in Immigration & Nationality Law Handbook, 1998-1999 Edition; and Payment of Foreign Nationals in 12th Annual AILA New York Chapter Immigration Law Symposium Handbook: Setting the Stage for a New Era in Immigration Law Practice (2009).