

hfma[®] texas gulf coast chapter
healthcare financial management association

Awards and Recognition
2017 Medal of Honor Award Recipient
Carole T. Faig

Carole T. Faig is the recipient of the 2017 Medal of Honor (MOH) award.

The Founders Medal of Honor was added in 1986 and is conferred by nomination of the Chapter Board of Directors. This prestigious award recognizes individuals who have been actively involved in HFMA for at least three years after earning the Muncie Gold Award, have provided significant service at the Chapter and / or National level in at least two of those years and remain as a member in good standing. A chapter may nominate members for this award at any time during the year.

Get Acquainted With Carole T. Faig

Ms. Faig is a voluntary Director of HFMA during the 2014–17 term, beginning June 1, 2014.

Career Highlights:

She is a partner with Ernst & Young LLP, Houston. In her role as the EY Southwest Region Health Care Leader, she spearhead the firm's efforts in serving health care and life sciences companies in Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Louisiana, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas. She offers more than 30 years of audit experience with more than 25 years devoted to health care. Simply put, she have served all segments of the industry including providers, health insurance businesses, and biotechnology companies. Finally, her work spans from large complex hospital systems to private-equity backed growth companies and SEC registrants

HFMA Background:

As it pertains to HFMA, Carole has been a member since 1991. She sits on the 2016-2017 National Advisory Council, serving as Co-Lead on the Revenue Cycle Council. More specifically, her efforts related to the Texas Gulf Coast Chapter includes:

Medal of Honor Recipient

Carol T. Faig

- Serving on the HFMA Principles & Practices Board. This board was established to reevaluate, clarify, and establish accounting principles and financial reporting practices of health service organizations.
- Representing the chapter via national speaking engagements.
- Serving as past chair and Chapter Board of Director.

She is also a prior recipient of the Founders Bronze and a Silver Award.

Community Outreach:

Ms. Faig has served on the Women's Home Governing Board, BioHouston Advisory Board, and Rice University's Alliance for Entrepreneurship Advisory Board.

Education & Professional Memberships:

Ms. Faig is a graduate of Sam Houston State University. She also holds memberships with other professional organizations to include American Institute of Certified Public Accounts (AICPA) and Texas Society of Certified Public Accounts (TSCPA).