

CHiLD POVERTY ACTION GROUP

CPAG warmly invite you to a Wellington seminar:
Child Poverty and Social Justice:
Not all are equal in NZ

Victoria University, Pipitea Campus, Rutherford House,
Mezzanine MZ 05 and 06.

An evening to discuss benefit fraud and the effects on families and children in poverty. Including a presentation about Kathryn's story, the story of a chronically-ill beneficiary mother convicted and jailed for benefit fraud despite maintaining her innocence. Followed by research findings around different treatments in the justice system between tax evasion and welfare fraud.

Wed
21 Sept
5.30pm-7pm

Speakers

Catriona MacLennan: Author of Kathryn's Story. She is a barrister, journalist and social activist with extensive experience in benefit law, credit and loan sharks and domestic violence

Lisa Marriott: Associate Professor of Taxation at Victoria University of Wellington's School of Accounting and Commercial Law
