

Consultant

We are looking for a highly motivated individual to work in the position of "Real Estate Analyst" in our San Diego or Irvine office. We are seeking a candidate who seeks a fast-paced, entrepreneurial environment and has the ability to think outside of the box. The position will involve incorporating analysis of real estate markets, consumer research, demographic analysis and product design. Our clients include builders, developers, landowners, private equity groups, hedge funds, and building product companies across the country.

A Bachelor's Degree required, along with a passion for the real estate industry and the desire to work in an entrepreneurial and dynamic environment. The ideal candidate will be a leader who is extremely well-organized, a quick learner, accurate, has strong Excel/database skills, and is an outstanding writer. You should enjoy analyzing real estate through data, consumer research, and demographic analysis and take great pride in all the work you complete. You must have uncompromised ethics and be willing to travel. You should be versed in economic analysis, market research, and creative problem solving.
