

SEWER EXTENSION WORKSHOP AGENDA

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 14, 2016
CHESAPEAKE COLLEGE, WYE MILLS, MD

- | | |
|--------------|---|
| 8:30 | Refreshments and registration |
| 9:00 | Welcome and introductions |
| 9:20 | Prospects for addressing septic systems on the Eastern Shore
Tetra Tech report and recommendations |
| 9:50 | How to go from septic systems to sewer (an overview)
Janice Outen and Ginny Kearney, MDE |
| 10:40 | MDP's perspective on sewer extension projects
Jason Dubow and Chuck Boyd, MDP |
| 11:25 | Legal considerations for service areas and growth management
Nancy Young, Assistant Attorney General |
| 12:00 | Lunch and Keynote
Secretary Benjamin Grumbles, MDE |
| 12:45 | Financing a sewer project outside a Priority Funding Area
Jag Khuman, MDE |
| 1:30 | Case studies: working through the process
Southern Kent Island Sewer Extension Project
Greensboro and Goldsboro extension and WWTP upgrade |
| 2:35 | Cracking the WIP

WIP impact, crediting, and implications for trading
Jim George, MDE

Working with WWTP permits: allocations, expansions, and pollution reduction
MDE |
| 3:30 | Open discussion with speaker panel |
| 4:00 | Adjourn |

The Healthy Waters Round Table is a collaborative effort of local government elected officials and staff on the Eastern Shore working together to accelerate progress toward clean water goals. The Round Table is facilitated by the Chesapeake Bay Foundation, Eastern Shore Land Conservancy, Harry R. Hughes Center for Agro-Ecology, and the University of Maryland Sea Grant Extension.