

A portrait of the Rev. Michael Curry, the Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church. He is a Black man with grey hair and a beard, wearing round glasses, a white clerical collar, a pink clerical tie, and a black suit jacket. He is smiling and has his arms crossed. The background is a blurred stained-glass window.

Sharing Your Story

MAY 22

Following the example of Bishop Curry, we invite you to a special evening of sharing why the church is important to you as the Episcopal brand of the Jesus Movement. Join us for dinner and conversation. This is a regional gathering of our 8 local churches: All Saints, Christ, Grace, St. Bartholomew's, St. Francis, St. Martin's, St. Mary's, St. Matthew's.

Tuesday, May 22

6:30 p.m.

Roslyn Retreat Center