Temple Sinai Sunday Deli Series

Enjoy New York Deli Lunch or Dinner and a Special Event

February 18th - “How I Brought Peace to the Middle East: A Tragikomedy”

An award winning play written by and starring David Kaye, a former member and bar mitzvah of Temple Sinai. Experience what happens to a Jewish boy as he grows up in Northern Vermont and then, as an adult, travels to Israel on a Fulbright scholarship. Info: Marjie Sheppard at mmczshep4@gmail.com

March 19th - “Tevye” - A vintage, Yiddish (with subtitles), Maurice Schwartz film from 1939

In a time before Zero Mostel and Topol, there was simply “Tevye.” View this movie, and join in a discussion and commentary by a local expert on the significance of the film. Info: Cynthia Pasackow at cpasackow@gmail.com

May 7th - Museum of Jewish Montreal Tour - Making Their Mark

Join us for a fitting ending to our Sunday Deli Series. This event will take us a bit farther afield as we travel to the heart of the Montreal Jewish community, learning about its roots and impact on that great city. Of course, a stop at a Montreal deli will be an integral part of our daylong journey. Info: Shelli Goldsweig at goldswei@champlain.edu
