STAFF SELECTIONS

2014 Four Vines 'Old Vines' Zinfandel

(Lodi, California)

Zinfandel is one of my favorite grape varietals, primarily because the resulting wines show big, bold flavors of spice, black pepper, and lush dark fruits. It also best exemplifies a truly American grape varietal, even though it has a European heritage (best known as Primitivo in Italy). At Surdyk's, we have an incredible selection of Zins, whether you are a fan of small, artisanal wineries like Peterson; bold and intense Zins such as Seghesio, Opolo, and Cline; or cult, high end wineries like Ridge and Turley. What they all have in common is a price close to $20 (or more), but there are many occasions that call for a wine closer to $10 that still delivers great quality. Well, one taste of Four Vines Old Vine Zinfandel convinced me that it easily meets those expectations. The vineyards of Four Vines winery are located in Lodi, California, and are comprised of 35-80 year old vines that produce a small amount of intensely flavored berries. The 2014 vintage is 84% Zinfandel, 10% Petite Sirah, 4% Syrah, and 2% Alicante Bouschet. It was aged in French, Hungarian, and American oak (25% new), for 12 months. The resulting wine shows delicious aromas of smoke, bacon fat, cassis, blackberry, spices, and black pepper. On the palate the wine is surprisingly youthful and lively given the complex nose. Tannins and subtle oak notes help to give the wine structure and a long finish. At UNDER $10, this wine is clearly a stunning value, so buy plenty to have on hand for your next picnic, barbecue, or mid-week pizza and burger meal. Here's to summer! #24373

STAFF SELECTIONS

2016 Ch. Trians Rosé

(Varois en Provence, France)

As a wine consultant at Surdyk's, I have seen many trends that have come and gone. But one trend that has enjoyed ever increasing demand over the last 6-8 years is the love for dry Rose style wines. While beautiful Roses are made in many different wine regions throughout the world, clearly the region most synonymous with the trend is Provence, a land of rolling green hills bathed in the golden Mediterranean sun in the south of France. One of the newest Provence Roses at Surdyk's is from Chateau Trians, which dates from the 18th century. The 49 acre estate is certified organic, and is located in the Coteaux Varois en Provence appellation. The wine is composed of 40% Grenache, 40% Cinsault, and 20% Syrah, with some of the low yielding vines up to 50 years old. The color is a beautiful bright pink, with aromas of fresh strawberries and floral notes that soar out of the glass and envelope your senses with images of sun and summer. The lush fruit carries over to the palate with the perfect hint of acidity to add brightness to the long finish. SUMMER IN A BOTTLE!! Enjoy Chateau Trians Rose on its own, or with a wide variety of foods such as mixed salads, poultry, and grilled meats. I am confident that you will love this Rose, so buy accordingly and take your senses on a trip to Provence, where sun is king and summer never ends. #111636

Brabander Goat Gouda

L'Amuse Brabander Gouda is made from pasteurized goat's milk in northern Holland. The wheels are hand-selected and shipped to the aging rooms of L'Amuse cheese shop in Santpoort-Noord, where owner and cheese monger extraordinaire Betty Koster matures them. The beautiful white paste has lovely flavors of caramel and butter, with a pleasant savory underpinning from the goat's milk.

2014 St. Francis Cabernet Sauvignon

(Sonoma County, California)

Bill McCleary

During our Surdyk's sales, customers ask this one question over and over again... "I already have my favorite California Cabs, but what have I missed that's good and well-priced?" My answer often points to St. Francis Winery in Sonoma County. They farm certified sustainable vineyards and make really great tasting wines that are a great value. Winemaking excellence makes this a distinctive Cabernet. Fruit is 98% Cabernet Sauvignon grapes with a small amount of Malbec and Petit Verdot for spice and personality. Russian River and Alexander Valley growers provide grapes to the estate fruit from St. Francis aged in French oak barrels before a final blending. You'll notice plenty of fruit flavors of cassis, black cherry, and plum. Some subtle graphite and leather spiciness cover a silky tannin. Nicely rich in texture and a full-bodied structure, this is a Cabernet that hits all the right notes when paired with grilled meats like charred steak. Delicious and bold. Now on sale in aisle 6. #84236

STAFF SELECTIONS

2014 Rocca di
Montemassi "Calasole" Vermentino

(Maremma, Italy)

Vermentino is a white grape variety enjoying a resurgence in popularity, particularly in Italy. This bottling is from Tuscany's coastal Maremma region. Vermentino's special beauty is in producing wines that combine bright orange-peel, nectarine aromas and flavors, with refreshing acidity. This bottling adds an extra level of richness and just a hint of supple mouthfeel. The result is extremely versatile – working well as an aperitif, pairing well with seafood, and even Mediterranean chicken preparations. If you like Sauvignon Blanc, but are looking for something to change things up, you can't miss out on this.

2015 Peterson Sauvignon Blanc

(Dry Creek Valley, California)

Jim Larson

If you love Sauvignon Blanc but are looking for a new take on its classic flavors, look no further than this gem from one of our staff's favorite small producers. Sourced entirely from the small Redwood Glen vineyard at the confluence of the Dry Creek and the Russian River, this wine displays the bold, assertive, Sancerre-style sense of terroir found in many Dry Creek AVA sauvignon blancs, but with a twist. A distinct wine making approach starts with a long, slow, cold fermentation in stainless steel (which preserves freshness and acidity), followed by 10 weeks in a combination of barrels. Most of the barrel aging is done in old neutral oak, but 25% rests in new Acacia wood. The barrel regime allows the fruit's natural ripeness and tropical fruit bouquet to come into the foreground. The result is a wine that displays the refreshing verve of the highest quality French sauvignon blancs in a fuller, more complex package. With only 170 cases produced, we are extremely lucky to be able to feature this wine. Unscrew one for your next round of hors d'oeuvres, as it pairs excellently with things as far ranging as shrimp, caprese salad, or olive tapenade. #23942

PAIRS WELL WITH

Persille de Rambouillet

The first thing to notice about this pasteurized farmstead

French goat's milk cheese is its striking appearance. It has a dark grey ash-coated rind that is a sharp contrast to its bright white blue-veined interior. This cheese is made from the herd of 700

goats at Ferme du Tremblay, a certified organic dairy outside of Paris. Its flavor is as striking as its appearance; it has a delicate complexity that dances with a rich butteriness.

Try this cheese with Basswood Honey from

Ames Farms.

STAFF SELECTIONS

2016 Biscaye Baie Sauvignon Blanc

(Cotes de Gascogne, France)

As the buyer for Surdyk's I have a very interesting perspective on many of the trends going on behind the scenes in the wine business. One trend that I watch almost daily is our sales of New Zealand Sauvignon Blanc. Apparently this is a style of wine that folks like. A lot! Once the cute younger step-child of the behemoth that was Australian wines, these days the kiddo is taking the older sibling to school. It's like Pinot Noir and Merlot all over again. Only this time it's Sauvignon Blanc and Shiraz. So folks like me, knowing that eventually customers will want a different style of Sauvignon Blanc, have been on the lookout for the next thing. I suspect that this wine will be part of the new generation of Sauvignon Blancs that ultimately replaces the New Zealand juggernaut. Light and crisp, distinctively Sauvignon Blanc, yet not in a radical style (either toward green pepper notes or gooseberry and grapefruit) just clean, stony, refreshing white wine at an affordable price. This wine is very centered, and very carefully made to appeal to a wide audience looking for something affordable, quaffable, and crowd-pleasing. Biscaye Baie (just an archaic spelling for 'Biscay Bay') is the brain-child of Jean-Christophe Calvet, our primary contact in Bordeaux, and the exporter of many of our most successful wines (Laroque, La Freynelle, Mongravey, just to name a few). I believe this might be one of his best productions, and it might also turn out to be one of our best finds. Do not miss out. #111667

2015 Casa Silva 'Cuvee Colchagua' Carmenere

(Valle de Colchagua, Chile)

Bill McCleary

Chile has a wealth of sunny, warm days and cool night breezes that are ideal for growing the Carmenere grape. The red wine of the same name has become a popular choice with our Surdyk's customers. Great taste and super value make Carmenere such a big attraction. The Silva family pioneered and invested in Carmenere in the Colchagua Valley. Today, this Cuvee is a blend of grapes from their Los Lingues vineyard in the Andes and the Lolol vineyard in the Costa zone. Superior grapes are the key to the Silva's delicious wine. Solid modern winemaking and oak barrel aging for 8 months complete the process. Black cherry and plum fruitiness with soft strokes of tannin and acidity show a balanced wine. A signature spiciness of cedar, leather, and savory herbs layer in a Chilean personality to charm your taste buds. If you've not yet tried Carmenere, here's a great opportunity at a sale price in our aisle 7 display box. #14029

Adelegger

Adelegger hails from Isny im Allgäu in the Bavarian Alps. For the past 15 years, a small cooperative of seven farmers has provided all the organic milk for master cheese maker Evelyn Wild to make this fantastic Alpine cheese. Adelegger is dense, almost fudgy, with a nutty, piquant flavor that melts into flavors of pineapple, brown butter, and beef broth. This is by far one of the most expressive cheeses we have tried and one of the two German artisan cheeses we carry.

2016 Leyda Sauvignon
Blanc

(Leyda Valley, Chile)

Noelle Starr

Sauvignon Blanc is able to grow almost anywhere in the wine world and because of that, there is a wide spectrum of "styles" for this grape – everything from New Zealand's signature grapefruit aromas to France's tell-tale minerality. Chile's style sits somewhere in between. The Leyda Valley is tucked into hillsides of Chile's coastal mountain range. 2016 was the coolest vintage on record, which contributes to the explosive aromatics and intense acidity of the wine. A hint of green pepper shows up on the nose along with definite citrus – but more lime zest and lemon oil than grapefruit. The palate shows more citrus as well as bright herbaceousness. There are definite mineral tones on the finish, which reminds me of the slatey-brisk Sauv Blancs of the Loire Valley. Made with estate grown fruit from Leyda's El Maiten vineyard. Not only is this an excellent representation of what Chile brings to the table, it's also an incredible example of Sauvignon Blanc.

Dönnhoff

Helmut Dönnhoff's wines are some of the most celebrated and hard to find wines coming out of Germany today.

2010 Grüner Veltliner "Grub" (6 per case) 22118

Awarded three stars (his highest rating) by Terry Theise, he describes this bottling as "magnificent... you almost can't believe it's real!" This vineyard tends to yield powerful, meaty wines, which Terry tends to avoid, but this wine is spectacular, and was the best Grüne of the vintage for him.

"Biscaya" Rose

(Burgenland, Austria)

Jim Larson

This is a serious rose. Not the type for quaffing poolside, this qualifies as a red lover's guilty pleasure. Just look at its components – pinot noir, cabernet, merlot, lagrion, teroldego, syrah, petite verdot! The wine's high-toned spicy aroma leads beautifully to the first sip. A bright, tingly acidity leads to dark fruits, rose-hips, wild game, and fresh cracked pepper which drive the wine towards a long, lingering, umami-filled finish. All fueled by a direct, engaging textural mouthfeel. This is a rose to think about, and one that has so many facets, all laced together, that you'll need a second glass to dig fully into its nuances. This is a wine built for daydreaming on a summer's afternoon, or for pairing with steak or pork when it is too hot for your favorite burly red. If you are looking for a rose with real character, make space for this. Another added bonus is that this wine will age nicely for 3-4 years, so if you find you like it, stock up while the price is right. #107804

STAFF SELECTIONS

Troublemaker Red, Blend 10

(Paso Robles, California)

For several years now I've been looking for a really good opportunity to promote this wine. There's been a little controversy around us recently, so I think this summer is the perfect opportunity to finally showcase this wine. Plus, we were offered a screaming deal on this bottling that pretty much sealed the deal. This is primarily a southern Rhone style blend (Syrah, Grenache, and Mourvedre) with significant contributions from Zinfandel and Petite Sirah. It pours into your glass as a nearly black wine, which may give some pause as that might suggest big tannins. This couldn't be farther from the reality though. If this wine does one thing right (and it does many things right) it has nailed the drinkability component. Nice weight and richness on the palate, with a silky-smooth texture, this is a joy to drink. Flavors pop right from the get-go (no need to decant really) and run decidedly to the dark side, with flavor notes that run in the soy sauce, slate, and blackberry jam families. Will make a fantastic pairing with most anything coming off the grill, but man, if you prepare short ribs with heavy sauce, this is your wine. If you feel a little contrarian, or you want to shake things up a little, maybe break the rules a little, or cause some trouble, this could be just the ticket. Now at a retail price well below what our normal cost has been, this is a fantastic wine at a price you may not see again. #106024

Brie Fermier

Brie Fermier is assertive, complex and unforgettable. The sweet cream and button mushroom flavors characteristic of a well-made brie are deepened by a distinct vegetal note, with hints of asparagus, broccoli, and tomato. Made at Ferme de Jouvence, a certified sustainable farm, this is a true farmstead brie, rarely exported to the United States. This is Brie in a way we are rarely able to eat in the U.S., so you have to try it.

The Whole Shebang Red "10th Cuvée"

(California)

Roger Clark

Shebang is made by Morgan Twain-Peterson as part of his Bedrock Wine Company. Morgan is the son of Joel Peterson of Ravenswood winery, but unlike many second generation wine makers, Morgan chose to pursue a degree at Vassar and even began pursuing a Master's degree. Friendships with wine enthusiasts in New York, however, led him back to California, and time spent in Australia and France only strengthened his resolve to start his own wine-making project. While many of the wines made under the Bedrock label are from very old and very specific vineyard sites, this is composed of grapes from several parts of California, creating complex red and black fruit flavors with notes of white pepper. This satisfying red will pair well with a wide variety of cheeses, sausages, and red meats. #111420

Bleu Mont Bandaged Cheddar

At the moment, I have to say that Bleu Mont Bandaged Cheddar is my all-time favorite American cheese. It is made by Willi Lehner in Wisconsin, with certified organic milk from pastured-only cows. It is then aged in an underground cave that Willi designed and built on his wind and solar powered farm. The cheese is aged for up to two years, and it's perfect! It smells of earth, has a dense texture, plus many complex flavors with notes of cedar, hazelnuts, toast, and caramel. Willi definitely raises the bar for all cheese makers.

CLINE

The entire winemaking operation at Cline, from vineyard to winery, is one of California's most environmentally conscious. Although Cline's wines are not "certified organic", they follow organic principles in the vineyards that are more strict than many of the certification standards; and in the winery, they have recently converted to solar power and now sell energy back to their former provider. All of this shows in their wines, which are among the purest expressions of their varieties that we know!

STAFF SELECTIONS

Le Contesse Brut

(Prosecco, Italy)

Noelle Starr

It is really no surprise that Prosecco is as popular as it is. It's Italian... it's bubbly... it's pretty much to the world of wine what puppies are to the animal kingdom. Yet, to be honest,

I didn't drink much of it. And that was for only one reason: most Prosecco on our shelves is made in the "extra dry" style, which (confusingly) means slightly sweet. I have always preferred bubbly (in any form – Cava, domestic, Champagne) that is dry, so I avoided the entire beloved Prosecco section. Until I discovered Le Contesse Italian Prosecco made in the "brut" style (dry!). With a pretty nose (white flowers, fresh cream, and pear), loads of lively bubbles, great acidity, and bonus – a reasonable 11% abv, you'll want to drink this at every opportunity. I suggest it with anything salty (cheese), creamy (quiche), or crunchy (potato chips), but don't let food get in the way – this is perfect all by itself. #111337

Bent River Camembert

Named after a sharp turn in the Minnesota River, Bent River

Camembert is the creation of cheesemaker Keith Adams. Keith, who has a background as a baker, decided to make the switch to cheese making a few years back, starting with the adaptation of a camembert recipe for his first cheese. Each small wheel is handmade using local, organic milk from Cedar Summit Dairy in New Prague, Minnesota. We just love the buttery texture and hints of mushroom and late summer grass in this super creamy camembert!

G Fifty Genshu (300ml)

(Forest Grove, Oregon)

You may have tried the popular big and bold bigger brother to this new sake in the past. This bright, juicy and refreshing younger sibling is perfect for summer! It is categorized as a junmai ginjo, but really classifies as daiginjo with its 50% rice milling rate. G Fifty shows great complexity of smooth grape, green apple, and refreshing mint notes. It will be the best companion to anything off the grill with its rich acidity and hints of mineral and spice. Don't forget this travel sized sake for your next backyard BBQ! #111763

Cheese Shop Summer Sale Features

Summer is here and we've got all the best food to prove it! Want to start your day with a nutrient rich juice made from fresh parsley, cucumber, melon, and mango? Round out your breakfast with poached eggs on a generous spread of avocado on a thick, local tomato slice. By lunchtime, a shrimp taco with pico de gallo made with cubes of avocado and a touch of chili. Yes, please!

Our Paella has always been a favorite among our regular customers, a crowd pleaser for sure. Of course, you can always just place a special order with us on a Cheese Shop paella day, and surprise the family with a crazy delicious dinner, but why not try your hand at making your own? You can do it right on your grill or on the kitchen stove. We've got the paella pans, rice, saffron, and chorizo. We will set you up with everything you'll need, including a recipe and advice from our chef. When the weather turns warm, we always feature different gazpachos. A Cheese Shop classic calls for a puree of tomatoes, cucumbers, peppers, garlic, onions, and a touch of sherry vinegar. We add extra virgin olive oil as we puree, and the result is a creamy, tangy, brightly flavored liquid salad. We make others as well, depending on what's available, like peaches, melons, and mangoes.

Summertime is when we take full advantage of the seasonal bounty and work with many local, organic farmers, preparing dishes that let the fresh ingredients shine and retain their nutritional value. I highly recommend pairing local tomatoes with our rich creamy burrata cheese, drizzled with Gianfranco Olio Verde, a Sicilian extra virgin olive oil. If you are a fan of Fermín Lomo and Iberico ham, we've got the handy pre-sliced packages; it's the perfect amount for a spur-of-the-moment picnic.

Other good eats you'll find in the cheese shop this summer will help you out with your summer entertaining, or be a great quick meal to grab on the fly. Look for our house-made empanadas, with fillings like beef and currants; potato, corn, and queso fresco; or chorizo, mushroom, and cheese.

Parmigiano Reggiano

Reg. $18.99/lb sale $13.99/lb

From the Emilia-Romagna region of Italy, and aged a minimum of two years, Parmigiano-Reggiano has a piquant, complex, fruity, nutty, savory flavor we often identify as umami. Widely regarded as one of the world's greatest cheeses, we love to eat it out of hand with salami, prosciutto, good bread, and wine.

Vintage 5 Year Gouda

Reg. $19.99/lb sale $14.99/lb

This rare 5 year old Gouda is intense and complex with a rich nutty flavor and subtle sweetness reminiscent of smoky butterscotch. The color is deep amber to burnt orange with a very firm and flaky texture.

Delice de Bourgogne

Reg. $16.99/lb sale $12.99/lb

This is a triple cream (75% butterfat) cheese with a soft, white bloomy rind, decadently rich and buttery with a just a hint of tanginess. Excellent with sparkling wines, fresh berries, honey, and almonds.

15 Fields

Reg. $19.99/lb sale $15.99/lb

15 Fields is an Irish farmstead raw milk cloth-bound cheddar that is a collaboration between cheesemaker Eamonn Lonergan and Sheridan's cheese mongers. The name is a reference to the 15 lush paddocks where the Lonergan family's cows graze. It has a dense but yielding texture with dots of crystallization. Bright, lemony acidity with a sweetness of honey, soil, and cellar is balanced by grassy creaminess.

Gorgonzola Cremificato Dolce

Reg. $17.99/lb sale $12.99/lb

A wonderfully silky soft blue. The flavor is delicate, with a hint of sweet grassiness. Cremificato has a higher moisture content and more subtle blue veining than most Gorgonzolas, making it perfect to fold into warm pasta with fresh herbs, or as a dessert cheese served with honey or dried fruit.

Brebis au Piment d'Espelette

Reg. $19.99/lb sale $15.99/lb

Two great Basque traditions in one! The lovely Ossau-Iraty (a staff and customer favorite) with Piment d'Espelette, the chili of the Basque region. Sweet and nutty with a soft heat.
