

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release
August 8, 2017

12th Annual Healthcare Heroes Event Honors Southern Nevada's Outstanding Medical Professionals on August 30th

Las Vegas, NV – Sponsored by Anthem Blue Cross Blue Shield and hosted by Nevada Business Magazine, the 12th annual Healthcare Heroes Awards will be held on Wednesday, August 30th at Red Rock Resort in Summerlin. The event will honor 11 individuals, including Las Vegas Mayor Carolyn Goodman, for making an impact on healthcare in the Southern Nevada community.

All proceeds from this event are donated to a scholarship fund benefiting students pursuing degrees in medical fields. Tickets for the awards gala are now available online at www.nevadabusiness.com/hch.

These heroes will be honored for their accomplishments in healthcare in the following categories:

Administrator

Sajit Pullarkat, Centennial Hills Hospital Medical Center

Care Provider

Dr. Keith Boman, Healthcare Partners Nevada, a DaVita Medical Group

Educator

Dr. Douglas Fraser, University Medical Center (UMC)

Community Partner

Mayor Carolyn Goodman, City of Las Vegas

Humanitarian

Ilona VanBoven, Steinberg Diagnostic

Volunteer

Lonnie Roy, Broadbent & Associates

Innovator

Dr. Le Hua, Cleveland Clinic Lou Ruvo Center for Brain Health

Non-Profit

Dr. Meena Vohra, Children's Hospital of Nevada at UMC

Physician

Dr. Paul Michael, Comprehensive Cancer Centers of Nevada

Lifetime Achievement

Dr. Carolyn Yucha, University of Nevada, Las Vegas School of Nursing

Additional Category for 2017:

Action Healthcare Hero

Gina Marsh, RN, Henderson Hospital

###

About Nevada Business Magazine:

The only statewide monthly business magazine in Nevada, Nevada Business Magazine has been connecting Nevada's decision-makers since 1986. With a readership of 82,000, Nevada Business Magazine delivers industry insight and expert business knowledge to leaders across the Silver State. For more information, please visit www.nevadabusiness.com.