TODAY'S PROGRAM...

B&B Adventures with Pat Materka

Gary Elling

Gary Elling introduced today's speaker, Pat Materka, noting that he was substituting for Garry Evans. He got this job because he won the Garry Evans 'Look Alike' contest. Many of us may recognize Pat as she volunteered for about 10 years in the Antiques & Collectables Department when we were at our downtown location. Pat grew up in the south and graduated from the University of South Carolina with a degree in journalism. She came north at that time to work at the Ann Arbor News and has been in Ann Arbor ever since, so she has adjusted to the weather. A year or two after Pat started at the Ann Arbor News, they hired another reporter to cover Business and Labor named Liz Elling. Their desks were right next to each other and they became lifelong friends.

After her children were born Pat went to work at the University of Michigan where she worked for several decades. She retired in 2000. Gary said that Pat has written four books and conducted numerous workshops on time management. After a few years of carefree retirement Pat and husband Bob purchased the Ann Arbor Bed & Breakfast in 2003. Due to their efforts 'Trip Advisor' now rates their Bed & Breakfast as the number one Bed & Breakfast in Ann Arbor. Pat's most recent book Twenty for Breakfast is a warm and humorous look at the trials and tribulations of being an innkeeper. It is available on Amazon and is a delightful read. Gary said that he isn't just saying this because he is mentioned on page twelve.

Pat is a devoted fan of Kiwanis. She may not be volunteering any more but she continues to shop at our Kiwanis Thrift Store. She also donates many things almost every other week. Pat has been running her Bed & Breakfast for almost 15 years and she just loves it—most of the time, that is. She described most B&Bs as being elegant and serene. Her B&B is not quite like that. "Whimsical" is how she describes it as decorated by her husband on the outside with as many as 30 different inflatables, according to the season. On the inside, she has her own way of decorating with antique toys. She doesn't call running her B&B work. She said that it is more of a lifestyle, with a very short commute. She can wear the same clothes every day because it's always different people. To her, it's sort of like the movie Groundhog Day because it's the same routine day after day. Yet what defines running a B&B for her is its unpredictability.

Pat and Bob try to be flexible as people check in outside the posted hours, or want breakfast outside of the posted hours. She said that one example of the unpredictability that they get happened at her friend Sarah's B&B. Sarah heard noises in her kitchen at 2am. She went to check on it and found one of the guests peering into the refrigerator, looking for something to eat—completely naked! Sarah told the man that was not appropriate and he scurried back into his room, never to be seen again. Never to be seen again as she put a 'guest note' into her reservation system to never accept a booking from him again. In addition, she notified her fellow B&Bs to do the same. Another time, at another friend's B&B, a couple checked in for a romantic getaway. After they had checked out her friend went to clean the room and found the woman had left an elaborate and expensive metal belt. Feeling really good about herself, she packaged the belt up and mailed it to the address on the reservation with a nice note saying that she hoped that they had enjoyed their stay at her B&B. Four days later she received a phone call from the wife who thanked her for returning the belt. By the way, the wife said, that was not her belt...

HOSPITALITY...

Kathy Barden-Perlberg asked for a moment of silence for the passing of Lloyd Kitchens. Lloyd was a past president of Kiwanis who had been in deteriorating health. Lloyd had had 47 years of perfect attendance at Kiwanis. A memorial Service will be held Saturday, April 21, 2018, at 10:00 AM at Northside Community Church. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting donations to Arbor Hospice and the Building Fund at Northside Community Church.

ANNOUNCEMENTS...

- Eloise Lavin will be on the Hospitality Committee for June, replacing Pat Buhrer.
- President William said that there will be a Board of Directors meeting, April 17: He asked that if anyone has anything to share at the meeting please get it in to him as soon as possible.
- We only have 14 more days, as of April 16, before our scholarships will be awarded on April 30. We are anticipating a full house so members were requested to park out in the rear of our parking lot so that our guests may park in the front. There will be no Happy Dollars on that date.
- The Kiwanis International Convention begins on June 28 in Las Vegas.

- The A2Y Regional Chamber golf outing is June 11 at Polo Fields. Registration info available here. All Ann Arbor Kiwanians are members of the Chamber and eligible to participate.

SUPER-INTERCLUBS...

There will be a super-interclub at South Lyon on June 11 and at the Manchester club on May 23. The Ypsilanti Club will have a super-interclub meeting in June on the 15th or on the 22nd. They expect that Debbie Dingle will be their featured speaker. Saline will have a super-interclub meeting on the 18th of June.

NEWS FROM OUR FRIENDS IN YPSILANTI...

Scott Virgo, President of the Ypsilanti Kiwanis Club reports, "We did well at our Pancake Breakfast this past Saturday (April 14, 2018). Net income was $5,213.77, almost $1,000 ahead of last year."

Historical note from Dale Leslie—Ypsilanti sponsored our organization in the same year (1921) which the two clubs were chartered. Our club later sponsored the formation of Ann Arbor Eastern (1947) and Ann Arbor Western (1959) and shared in the sponsorship of Ann Arbor North, Ann Arbor Golden K, and Ann Arbor Morning Edition. Of those mentioned, the Ann Arbor Western club remains active today. Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor have also formed Sponsored Youth programs in our Division. Interesting fact: in our current membership, 10 members have served as presidents of other Kiwanis clubs in the Michigan District. Charlie Phibbs (Ann Arbor Western) is the 10th member to be added to the list found on page six of the 2017-2018 Membership Digest.

FINES...

Dan Dever proposed a fine on Dale Leslie for two things: the first was getting the gender mixed up on our guest from U of M Circle K—Dale called Jill Davidson 'Bill' Davidson. The second was for attempting to institutionalize AI Gallup.

Dale fined everyone who had not graduated from Ann Arbor High School or Pioneer High.

Nick Dever, as an act of inclusive monetary equity, then fined all those who did graduate from either of those two schools.

HAPPY DOLLARS...

- ☺ President William Hampton was happy for the way that he has been criticized for handling Happy Dollars.
- ☺ Don Kossick was happy to thank Pat Buhrer many years of service to the Hospitality Committee.
- ☺ Dick Smit was happy for not slipping and falling in yesterday's ice storm.
- ☺ Larry Dittmar was happy for the upcoming Ann Arbor Symphony that will play at Hill Auditorium at 8:00 this Saturday.
- ☺ Allen Berg was happy for the Blue Handout that was on each & every table. This handout details the Annual Election Ballot Information. Both the Special Election (President Elect vacancy) and the regular Annual Election will be on the same date: Monday, May 7, 2018. See Page 7 of this newsletter for a copy of the election notice.
- ☺ President William Hampton had ten more Happy Dollars for the club members keeping the Happy Dollar portion of the meeting short.
- ☺ Note—not all of the Happy Dollars donors may be shown here. If your Happy Dollar was missed, please see Dave LaMoreaux at next week's meeting and we will try to put it in next week's Newsletter.

Club Election is on May 7th

An Upcycling Adventure in Finding, Fixing and Flipping!

"Flippin' for Kiwanis" has become an ongoing Kiwanis event inspired by the television show "Flea Market Flip". Customers, members, and volunteers upcycle a piece of furniture at Kiwanis Center and sell it for more than it was originally priced. With a little bit of donated time, supplies and imagination, pre-selected pieces can be upcycled for a profitable resale at the weekly Kiwanis Thrift Sale.

The pieces are transformed at Kiwanis Center during regular store hours, Fridays and Saturdays, 9am -1 pm. We provide the space, the pieces, some supplies and carpentry help while you provide creativity, paint choices, and time!

Participants do not pay for the item they transform but are asked to be prepared to sell it!

DISTINGUISHED KIWANIAN AWARD PRESENTATION...

Bob Barden, Sr.

Larry French told us that Bob Barden, Sr. had been awarded the 'Distinguished Kiwanian Award'. This is an award that was combined from our club, the Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation and from the Michigan District of Kiwanis International. Larry then asked Kathy Barden-Perlberg and Bob Barden Jr. to accept this award on behalf of their father. Kathy spoke of her father telling us:

Robert James Barden was born in Saginaw, Michigan, one of six children raised by a single mother. As a teen he would serve as an altar boy at morning mass and close out the day playing cards and shooting pool. Bob served in the Army during WWII and continues to wear his vets' cap to this very day. He was stationed in Japan and was proud to be a sharpshooter with Marksman Rank.

He returned after the war and married Margaret. Together they have four children, two of whom—Robert and Kathleen—are past presidents of the downtown Ann Arbor Kiwanis Club, a fact that he was proud to share often with a contribution of a happy dollar. When Bob came to Ann Arbor to work in the financial services industry he was a partner and then sole owner of the Ann Arbor Credit Bureau, Inc. a company that specialized in debt collection and credit reporting. Bob excelled in state and national leadership positions. He was a leader in credit reporting automation and purchased bureaus in surrounding counties. He also helped craft the Fair Debt Collections Act of 1982 and was at the White House for the Rose Garden ceremony when President Ronald Reagan signed the legislation.

Bob joined Kiwanis in 1961, serving as president in 1970-71. He was inducted into Hall of Honor in 1997 and he is a Hixon fellow. He worked for many years in the furniture department of the thrift sale where his nametag read: "BIG SALE BOB". He supported club work and social functions including, but not limited to Green Oak visits, the Blenheim golf and curling exchange, poker night, pickups (aka: Racquet Squad), ringing bells for the Salvation Army, and the downtown building acquisition for Kiwanis.

Bob, through fellow Kiwanians Paul Lohr and Dave Fox, became a pilot, and later became an air show pilot with a wing-walking act. He always promoted Ann Arbor, even forming a company to book local talent at air shows. He maintained 48 years of perfect Kiwanis attendance even while performing air shows throughout the Midwest, including the internationally acclaimed show in Oshkosh, Wisconsin. While spending winters at a Florida fly-in community, he attended Kiwanis meetings in Daytona Beach. Bob loves Kiwanis more than any other affiliation he has, including business, church, and aviation. He is so dedicated to the greater good of serving the Kiwanis community that he wrote about it in his memoir, recalling his words at the 1997 induction in the Hall of Honor: "Out of more than 30 various social and professional organizations that I belong to, Kiwanis is the most important one to me." Bob made the most friendships of his life at Kiwanis and felt a strong connection to his community through his involvement with the club.

To all of his many friends he would choose to close—as he did in his memoir—with the last sentence of his favorite Irish Blessing: "And may all God's passing seasons bring the best to you and yours".

Irish Blessing

May love and laughter fill your heart
And warm your hearth and home.

May good and loyal friends be yours
No matter where you roam.

May peace and plenty fill your world
With joy that long endures.

And may all God's passing seasons
Bring the best to you and yours.

CENTENNIAL MEMORY GEM...

Where were you in 1959 (almost 60 years ago)? The Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor Western was presented its Charter by Kiwanis Lt. Governor Duane Bauer (Member, the Greater Downtown Whitmore Lake Kiwanis Club) and Sidney F. Main (not pictured), Michigan District Kiwanis Governor. The recipient, Howard W. (Pop) Delf, charter Western president, and owner of Delf's Painting on West Stadium Boulevard. The formation of the Ann Arbor Western Kiwanis Club was sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Ann Arbor. The smiling, hefty Bauer was an Ann Arbor Police Officer who was rumored to pull uncooperative drivers from behind their wheel without opening the car door.
