

The School of Social Work at the University of Missouri-St. Louis Announces an Assistant Professor Position

Candidates are invited to apply for an assistant professor position beginning the 2017/18 academic year. We are looking for candidates with a macro-level focus (preferred), an active research agenda, and an earned doctorate. All qualified candidates will be considered though an MSW plus two years of post-Master's experience is also preferred. Salary is competitive and will be based on experience and qualifications.

UM-St. Louis' School of Social Work is a vibrant, collegial, and growing program. With 550 BSW and MSW students and world-class faculty, the school is recognized for excellent teaching, service, and scholarship. The School houses the campus Creating Whole Communities program and the Center for Family Research and Policy.

UM-St. Louis is a research and teaching campus with bachelors, masters, and doctoral degree programs. It is located on 470 acres on the edge of an exciting urban community with a rich and enduring cultural heritage.

Review of applications will begin November 1st and will continue until the position is filled. For additional position information and submission instructions, please visit our website at: <http://www.umsf.edu/~socialwk/>.