CHANCERY ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW – Catholic Relief Services National Collection Is March 25-26

Carolina Parrales 415-614-5570 parralesc@sfarch.org
USCCB Catholic Relief Services Collection

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops’ national Catholic Relief Services Collection is Sunday, March 26, in all dioceses across the nation, to support vital Catholic programs that share in the Catholic mission of promoting the sacredness of human life and the dignity of the human person. Funds acquired from this collection are distributed to the following six organizations: Catholic Relief Services for international relief and development; Migration and Refugee Services for refugee resettlement; Catholic Legal Immigration Network Inc.(CLINIC) for immigration legal services; Department of Justice, Peace, and Human Development for advocacy; Holy Father’s Relief Fund for emergency relief; Secretariat of Cultural Diversity in the Church for evangelization and ministry.

Two Job Fairs for Elementary School Teacher Positions

Saturday, March 25, 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
Immaculate Heart of Mary School, 1000 Alameda de las Pulgas, Belmont

Saturday, March 25, 10:00 am to 12:00 noon
Star of the Sea School, 360 9th Ave., San Francisco

Mrs. ‘Ofa Po’oi 415-614-5660
sfarch.org/DCSwelcome

The Department of Catholic Schools for the Archdiocese of San Francisco announces two job fairs, on March 25, for teachers seeking elementary school positions (pre-school through Grade 8) for the 2017-2018 school year. For jobs in San Francisco County or Marin County schools, come to Star of the Sea School in San Francisco; for jobs in San Mateo County schools, come to Immaculate Heart of Mary School in Belmont. Please bring your professional resume with you to these Job Fairs. To receive a teacher application packet, visit the Department of Catholic Schools online, or contact Mrs. ‘Ofa Po’oi, above. A Job Fair flyer is here.
Archbishop Will Dedicate New Adoration Chapel at Star of the Sea
Saturday, March 25, 3:00-5:30 pm
Star of the Sea Church, 4420 Geary Blvd., San Francisco
Leslie Low 916-396-1029 adoration@star.com
starparish.com

Saturday, March 25, Star of the Sea parish will consecrate its new St. Joseph Adoration Chapel, with Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone presiding. The schedule of events is: 3:00 pm chapel consecration and Eucharistic procession; 4:00 pm Benediction; 4:30 pm Mass of Thanksgiving; 5:30 pm Reception. All are welcome. And all are welcome to help this chapel be a light in San Francisco by becoming an adorer. Starting March 30, there will be 54 hours of continuous adoration every week from Thursday morning through Saturday afternoon. Be a part of this transformative Eucharistic movement. Adoration signup is online here. For more information, contact Leslie Low, above.

UPDATED – Archdiocesan Events in Response to Concerns on Immigration
Lorena Melgarejo 415-724-4987 melgarejol@sfarch.org
sfarch.org/immigration

The archdiocesan Office of Human Life and Dignity offers information and resources on immigrant concerns and Catholic response, on the “Immigration” webpage (see above). Visit the webpage for updates. Recently posted is the “Family Preparedness Plan” / “Plan de Preparacion Familiar” from the Immigrant Legal Resource Center.

Upcoming events in the archdiocese include:

TRAINING: Solidarity in Action: Rapid Response to Immigration Raids
Sunday, March 26, 2:30 pm
Our Lady of Perpetual Help, 60 Wellington Ave., Daly City

TRAINING: Know and Defend your Immigrant Rights (Spanish)
Monday, March 27, 5:30 pm
St. Timothy's Church
Flyer in Spanish here

TRAINING: Solidarity in Action: Rapid Response to ICE Raids, and Legal Observer Training
Tuesday, March 28, 5:00 - 7:00 pm
USF, Bermann Room at Fromm’s Hall, Parker St. at Golden Gate Ave., San Francisco

NEW – Cathedral Livestreaming Launched Last Week
Jan Potts, Department of Communication 415-614-5638 potts@sfarch.org
YouTub (Archdiocese of San Francisco)

Livestreaming of archdiocesan liturgies from the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption began last Wednesday. The Mass was celebrated by Archbishop Cordileone for the Western Region Canon Law Meeting, with Cardinal Raymond Burke present and giving the homily. The archived recording may be viewed now on the archdiocesan YouTube channel (above).

Watching a livestreaming is not a substitute for attending Mass. It is one way for those who cannot be present to be enriched and strengthened, and connected to the celebrating community. Recordings are archived for later viewing, and it is our hope that many will watch and share. Upcoming liturgies to be streamed live and recorded include the Chrism Mass on April 6 at 5:30 pm and the liturgies of Holy Week at which the archbishop will preside or be present:
• Sunday, April 9, 11:00 am:  Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion.
• Holy Thursday, April 13, 7:30 pm:  Mass of the Lord’s Supper.
• Good Friday, April 14, 1:00 pm Stations of the Cross; 2:00 pm Music with St. Brigid’s student choir; 3:00 pm Liturgy of the Passion and Death of the Lord.
• Holy Saturday, April 15, 9:00 pm:  Easter Vigil Mass of the Lord’s Resurrection.
• Easter Sunday, April 16, 9:00 am:  Easter Sunday Mass.

If you are a St. Mary's parishioner interested in participating in this project as a volunteer, please contact Fr. Patrick Driscoll, 415-567-2020 ext. 208 or FrDriscoll@StMaryCathedralSF.org. All others contact Jan Potts, see above.

NEW – Evergive App to be Discontinued: Transition Help Is Available

We have recently learned that Evergive, an app used by some parishes in the archdiocese, was purchased by the J. S. Paluch organization. Paluch has also acquired the OneParish app. Evergive will cease to exist on March 30, 2017. Peggy Flaherty of OneParish is assisting parishes with the transition to OneParish, should a parish choose to do that. Please contact her for more information: Peggy Flaherty, 630-327-2213, peggy@growingthefaith.com.

Lenten News and Resources

---

NEW – Cemetery Offers First Saturday Mass and Stations of the Cross

Saturday, April 1, 11:00 am

Holy Cross Cemetery, 1500 Mission Rd., Colma

Monica J. Williams  650-757-0752

holycrosscemeteries.com

All are invited to pray for our deceased loved ones at the monthly First Saturday Mass at Holy Cross Cemetery in Colma. Fr. Tom Parenti will celebrate Mass on Saturday, April 1, at 11:00 am in All Saints Chapel. The Stations of the Cross are available for personal prayer and devotion before or after Mass, at three locations: indoors at All Saints Mausoleum and Holy Cross Mausoleum; outdoors in Sections G2 & L2. The cemetery office has prayer booklets and maps. The Mausoleum buildings are open 9:00 am to 4:00 pm, and the cemetery grounds are open 8:00 am to Sunset, daily.

Archbishop at Cathedral Liturgies Holy Week and Easter

St. Mary's Cathedral, 1111 Gough Street, San Francisco

415-567-2020

stmarycathedralsf.org

Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone will preside at several Lenten and Eastertide liturgies at the Cathedral of Saint Mary of the Assumption:

• Thursday, April 6, 5:30 pm:  The Holy Chrism Mass.
• Sunday, April 9, 11:00 am:  Palm Sunday of the Lord’s Passion.
• Holy Thursday, April 13, 7:30 pm:  Mass of the Lord’s Supper
• Good Friday, April 14, 3:00 pm:  Liturgy of the Passion and Death of the Lord
• Holy Saturday, April 15, 9:00 pm:  Easter Vigil Mass of the Lord’s Resurrection
• Easter Sunday, April 16, 9:00 am:  Easter Sunday Mass

The full Eastertide schedule, with details of services and music, is online at the Cathedral Events page.
“Lent 2017” Webpage Updates Include New Resources and TV Show

The archdiocesan webpage “Lent 2017” offers an overview of the season, links to resources, and detailed information from parishes about their liturgies, programs, and special events, as well as a video of the March 5 episode of the television program Mosaic, with Fr. Joseph Previtali and seminarian Michael Rocha discussing Lent, and the meaning and purpose of our fasting, praying, and almsgiving. The “Lent 2017” webpage is a resource for keeping Lent well, and the information there is being shared on the archdiocesan social media channels throughout Lent. Parishes: Please continue to send us information about Lenten activities so that we can update and enrich the webpages. Send e-mail to The Bridge, above.

NEW – San Francisco Católico Is in Parishes This Week

Joe Peña 415-614-5642

The new issue of the Spanish-language archdiocesan newspaper, San Francisco Católico, (issue date March 19) will be delivered to parishes this week. Please alert your parish distribution teams and do all you can to ensure the publication reaches those for whom it is intended. Contact Joe Peña with any questions, see above.

New Archdiocesan Coordinator of Youth and Young Adult Ministry

Amanda George, Coordinator of Youth & Young Adult Ministry 415-614-5595 georgea@sfarch.org.

The Archdiocese of San Francisco welcomes Amanda George as Coordinator of Youth and Young Adult Ministry. Fr. Charles Puthota, director of the Department of Pastoral Ministry, says, “It has been a deeply felt desire that we need more youth and young adults engaged in the life of the Church. I have asked Amanda to go out to parishes and deaneries and explore ways of preaching the good news to youth and young adults.”

Amanda George is a parishioner at the Church of the Nativity in Menlo Park. She has a bachelor’s degree in Business Administration from Sonoma State University, and her professional background is in operations, information technology, and web development.

She says, “I’ve done youth ministry with St. Thomas Aquinas Parish in Palo Alto, St. Joseph in Cupertino, and at the Echoes of Worth teen retreat in 2015 and 2016. I’ve done young adult ministry with Goretti Group and Young Catholic Professionals Silicon Valley. Through discernment I concluded God was inviting me to leave the web development job that I enjoyed and enter into full-time ministry working for the Church. My top priorities are supporting parishes in their youth and young adult ministry efforts, offering archdiocese-wide opportunities for youth and young adults to grow in our love of God, understand our faith, and foster deep Catholic identity, and helping to plan and promote cross-diocese youth and young adult ministry events.” Questions? Contact Amanda George, above.

Volunteer Sacristans Wanted, Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma

Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery in Colma is seeking a volunteer to act as a sacristan for the monthly First Saturday Mass and other special Masses such as Memorial Day and All Souls Day. The Sacristan sets up the chapel for the Mass, assists the presider in coordinating Altar Servers, Lectors, Gift Bearers, and Eucharistic Ministers; replaces all liturgical aides following Mass; communicates any chapel needs to the cemetery staff.
More than one volunteer sacristan is appreciated, so as to provide consistent coverage for the cemetery events. For more information, please contact Monica Williams, Director of Cemeteries at 650-756-2050, or mjwilliams@holycrosscemeteries.com.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

San Francisco County

NEW – Wednesday Lenten Soup Suppers in San Francisco

Wednesday, March 22 and March 29, 6:30 p.m.
St. Stephen Parish, Donworth Hall, 473 Eucalyptus Dr., San Francisco
Mary Molly Mullaney  415-681-2444 x27  FaithFormation@SaintStephenSF.org

St. Stephen Parish has Lenten Soup Suppers on the last two Wednesdays in March. The evenings begin with a simple soup supper in Donworth Hall at 6:30 pm. followed by a one-hour presentation by a guest speaker 7:00 – 8:00 pm. On March 22, Fr. Dave Pettingill on “Passover from a Catholic Priest’s Perspective;” on March 29, Taizé Prayer Service in the church (after soup in the hall). Attendees can sign up to bring soup or bread for 10 people; but all are invited, regardless of ability to contribute. (Directions: Donworth Hall is underneath the gym, and entry is from the school yard. Lots of free parking in the Stonestown Cinema parking lot.) Questions? Contact Mary Molly Mullaney, above. A flyer is here.

NEW – Lenten Retreat Evenings in San Francisco

Wednesday-Saturday, March 29-April 1
St. John of God Church, 1259 Fifth Ave., San Francisco
415-566-5610  sjog.net

Sr. Alyssa Meis of the Verbum Dei Missionary Fraternity and colleagues will facilitate a set of Lenten retreats at St. John of God Church. Attendance at all sessions is not required for participation. Evening sessions are 7:00-9:00 pm on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday, March 29-30; the Saturday session is 9:30 am to 3:30 pm on April 1, and concludes with 4:15 pm Vigil Mass. Based on contemplative prayer with Scripture (Lectio Divina), this retreat will provide a sacred space for reflecting on our Lenten and Life Journey, allowing us to be drawn back to the fullness of Love that lives, moves, andbreathes within all.

NEW – Star of the Sea Speaker Series:
Jack Sacco on the Shroud of Turin

Sunday, April 2, 6:00 pm
Star of the Sea Auditorium: 4420 Geary Blvd. (at 8th Ave.), San Francisco
Claire Herrick  415-751-0450 x22

Fact is separated from fiction in this revealing look at the scientific investigations of the famed Shroud of Turin. For years, myths about the Shroud have confused the public. Now, award-winning author and lecturer Jack Sacco shares his discoveries and reveals the truth about the Shroud of Turin. Admission is free (optional donation).

NEW – First Friday Mass for Catholic Charismatic Renewal

Friday, April 7, 6:30 pm
Church of the Visitation, 655 Sunnydale Ave., San Francisco
Letty Ramos  415-469-5912  | Anh Kellog  415-342-6668
sfspirit.com
All are welcome to First Friday Mass on April 7 at the Church of the Visitation. Hosted by the Charismatic Prayer Group of the Church of the Visitation and the Vietnamese Community, the evening’s services are in English and Vietnamese. Assembly is at 6:30, Rosary recitation at 6:45; Praise & worship at 7:00, Mass at 7:30, and Healing Service at 8:30. Celebrants are Fr. Raymund Reyes, Fr. Thuan Hoang, and Deacon Ernie von Ernster. A flyer is here. For information on the San Francisco Archdiocese Catholic Charismatic Renewal, visit the website, above.

St. Dominic Has “the Last Mass in the City” Every Sunday
Sundays, 9:00 pm
St. Dominic Church, 2390 Bush Street, San Francisco
415-567-7824  info@stdominics.org

It is often referred to as “the Candlelight Mass.” It is also known as “the last Mass in the City,” and grateful Catholics call it “a lifesaver.” Has weekend work, or travel, or some unexpected obligation interfered with your schedule? If Mass has to be the last thing on your Sunday instead of the first—it is. The 9:00 pm Mass at St. Dominic Church in San Francisco, each Sunday night, all year round, has been a dependable part of the parish calendar for twenty years. St. Dominic’s director of music and liturgy, Simon Berry, adds this: “This late evening Mass offers a more reflective and subdued worshiping atmosphere, with the lights dimmed to about fifty percent, and votive candles enhancing the visual atmosphere. The music is based on the simple chants of Taizé and Gregorian chants. We currently welcome an average of 250 worshipers each week. All types attend, but we do notice lots of young professionals.”

Grief Support Group, Eight Sundays at St. Dominic
Sundays, April 23 through June 11, 3:30-5:00 pm
St. Dominic Church, 2390 Bush St, San Francisco
Deacon Chuck McNeil  415-505-9114  deaconchuck@stdominics.org

“The Courage to Grieve” is an eight-week, closed-session, grief support group. It will begin on April 23. This is a closed group, not a drop-in, and is intended for those who have experienced a death of someone in the past two years. A pre-group meeting with the facilitator is required. There is no charge. Meetings will be in the Aquinas Room at St. Dominic parish, from 3:30 to 5:30 pm each Sunday. Contact Deacon Chuck McNeil, above.

San Mateo County

NEW – St. Pius Hog ’n’ Heat Rib and Chili Competition
Saturday, April 8, 11:00 am -- 4:00 pm
St. Pius Parish, 1100 Woodside Rd., Redwood City
Jessica Wayne  hognheat@gmail.com

This is a fun family day and a chance to support the St. Pius Parish Youth Ministry while eating competition-style ribs and chili. More than 40 cooking teams, professional and amateur, are competing for prizes. Official judging is by certified judges; and the People’s Choice Awards are voted by the customers. Tickets are $1 each, and pricing is 1 rib = 2 tickets, a two-ounce serving of chili = 2 tickets, a two-ounce serving of coleslaw = 2 tickets, and a piece of cornbread = 1 ticket. Water, soda, beer, and wine are also available for purchase. The more you spend, the more People’s Choice Award votes you get. And funds raised go to support the parish Youth Ministry. It’s real fun, and a real BBQ competition.
NEW – Mercy Center Retreat with Brothers from Taizé

Friday-Saturday, May 5-6
Mercy Center, 2300 Adeline Dr., Burlingame
Mercy Center Program Office  BSoracco@mercywmw.org  650-340-7495
mercy-center.org

Mercy Center in Burlingame presents a retreat of prayer and song in the style of Taizé on May 5-6, especially for young people. In an unusual visit to the U.S., Brother John and Brother Emile from the Taizé Community in France will bring the beauty of prayer and song for the weekend: Hoping Against All Hope: The Challenge of the Gospel; A Weekend of Prayer and Reflection with the Brothers of Taizé. They especially invite people ages 16 to 35 to celebrate a vibrant faith in this time of fear and division. Cost $20. More information is online here.

NEW – Vallombrosa Summer Retreat with Author Alice Camille

Sunday, August 13, 1:00 pm to Friday, August 18, 4:00 pm
Vallombrosa Retreat Center, 250 Oak Grove Ave., Menlo Park
David Leech  650-325-5614
vallombrosa.org

Vallombrosa Retreat Center offers only one week-long retreat per year. This summer it is “The Holy Mirror: Discovering Ourselves through the Lens of Scripture,” with noted Catholic author Alice Camille. Religious and non-religious people are both welcome; and there are several different attendance options. This scriptural retreat is guided by Alice Camille, author of Invitation to the Old and New Testament, The Forgiveness Book, and For Everything There Is a Season. She says, “Throughout our lives, certain archetypes shape our sense of self, the world, the road we're on, and the goals we seek. Our idea of good and evil, male and female, leaders, parents, mentors, friends, and more are framed in the stories of the Bible. The picture’s not always pleasant, but it never fails to be instructive and is sometimes downright revelatory.” Attendance options range from all 6 days, in residence or as a commuter, to one day drop-ins. Rates and registration are online. Questions: contact David Leech, above.

Outside the Archdiocese

U.S. Catholic China Bureau National Conference

August 11-13, 2017
St. John’s University, Queens, New York
Fr. Rob Carbonneau, C.P.  510-900-2015  director@uscatholicchina.org uscatholicchina.org

CONCERTS

St. Mary's Cathedral
1111 Gough St. at Geary, San Francisco
415-456-2020, ext. 213
stmarycathedralsf.org

The following Sunday Recitals are free to the public. Unless otherwise indicated, a free-will offering will be requested at the door. There is ample free parking. All recitals begin at 4:00 pm, unless otherwise indicated.

03/26    Naoko Maeda (Japan), organist. Works by Bach, Hirten, Franck, Taki, Widor, and Alain.
04/02    Christoph Tietze, organist. 25th Anniversary Recital.
04/09    Jisook Park (Korea), pianist
04/16    Sandra Simich, pianist

RETREAT HOUSES

The Jesuit Retreat Center of Los Altos
300 Manresa Way, Los Altos
jrclosaltos.org/retreats

The Jesuit Retreat Center, El Retiro, has a variety of retreats and events. Visit the website above to see the full schedule and complete details, and to learn more about this beautiful retreat center in the hills of Los Altos. Private retreats for individuals and groups are also available.

Sunday Day Retreat for Mothers
Presenters: Ms. Mary Abinante and Fr. Andrew Rodriguez, S.J.
March 26 (non-silent retreat for women)

Palm Sunday Weekend Retreat
Presenters: Pastoral Staff
April 7-9 (silent retreat for women and men)

Save the World... or Savor It? Being Reached by the Widow, Orphan, and Stranger
Presenter: Fr. Greg Boyle, S.J.
April 21-23 (non-silent retreat for women and men)

Easter Day of Retreat
Presenter: Pastoral Staff
April 25 (non-silent Day Retreat for women and men)

A Retreat for Friends and Family of Alcoholics
Presenter: Fr. Tom Weston, S.J.
April 28-30 (non-silent retreat for family members of alcoholics)
JOB LISTINGS

Pursuant to the San Francisco Fair Chance Ordinance, the Archdiocese will consider for employment qualified applicants with arrest and conviction records.

Chancery Positions:
The Archdiocese of San Francisco is seeking to fill the positions listed below. Click the job title to view full job description and instructions for applying.

- Associate Superintendent for Faith Formation and Leadership
- Associate Superintendent for Curriculum and Instruction
- Associate Superintendent for Secondary Schools and Student Services
- Executive Director – Benedict XVI Institute for Sacred Music and Divine Worship
- Director of Development

NEW – Temporary Caretakers for Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery

Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery is currently seeking applications for Temporary Cemetery Caretakers to assist in providing seasonal work during spring and summer. The job requires manual skills and physical strength, performing tasks such as cleaning and clearing cemetery grounds of debris, weeding, using power trimmers, shovels, rakes, blowers, etc. For inquires please contact kbonillas@holycrosscemeteries.com. Applications are available at: Holy Cross Cemetery, 1500 Mission Road, Colma CA 94014.

NEW – Part-time Office Assistant at Loyola House, San Francisco

This position provides office support to the Community Administrator and residents at Loyola House. Loyola House is the residence for the Jesuit Community who work at the University of San Francisco and the two Jesuit parishes in the archdiocese. This position starts as soon as possible, is part-time, approximately 15 hours per week, ideally Mondays, Tuesdays, and Thursdays, 9:30 am-2:30 pm, with some flexibility. Dress is business casual. The position requires basic administrative skills--filing, basic bookkeeping, etc. Ability to use Microsoft Office, Excel, and QuickBooks is required. If interested, please contact Eliza Escott at 415-422-2737 or by e-mail at escott@usfca.edu. Please attach a resume to your email.

Family Services Counselor, Holy Cross Cemetery, Colma

Holy Cross Catholic Cemetery in Colma is seeking applicants for the position of Family Services Counselor. This individual provides exemplary personalized customer service to families planning funeral arrangements, and educates individuals and families about burial, cremation, and memorialization options within the context of Catholic teaching. Knowledge and experience in funeral home and/or cemetery practices preferred. Bilingual English/Spanish, preferred. For more information about this job and the application process, see the flyer here.
Director of Teaching and Learning, San Francisco

Mercy High School in San Francisco seeks a Director of Teaching and Learning (DTL). This position is primarily responsible for Faculty Professional Development, Student Academic Support Programming, Standardized Testing, Intersession, and Summer School. S/he reports to the Assistant Head of School for Academics and sits on the Academic Council and Head’s Advisory Council. The DTL is responsible (in collaboration with Academic Council) for developing and implementing school-wide programs designed to advance the mission-centered practice of teaching and learning of all members of the Mercy community. S/he is also chiefly responsible for overseeing the Intersession program as well as all standardized testing (AP, PSAT, etc.). The DTL both reinforces academic and behavioral expectations for students, and embodies and models them consistently. The DTL at Mercy High School collaborates with the entire adult community to ensure that the program of study enables all students to fulfill their potential. The DTL will work directly with students and faculty alike, providing them ongoing mentorship and direction to successfully navigate their Mercy experience and beyond. Mercy High School educates women to pursue lives of spiritual and intellectual depth, determination, and daring action to improve our world as an inclusive, Catholic, college preparatory community enlivened by the Gospel of Jesus and the charism of the Sisters of Mercy. Click here for complete job description and instructions.

Director of Student Life, San Francisco

Mercy High School in San Francisco seeks a Director of Student Life (DSL). This position is primarily responsible for Diversity and Inclusion, Student Behavior, and Student Activities. S/he reports to the Assistant Head of School for Mission and sits on the Head’s Advisory Council and Crisis Response Team. The DSL is responsible for developing and implementing school-wide programs designed to foster a culture and climate built on the Catholic Mercy values of academic excellence, diversity, integrity, spirituality, sisterhood, leadership and hospitality. S/he is also chiefly responsible for administering disciplinary actions in a progressive school environment. The DSL not only reinforces academic and behavioral expectations for students, but also embodies and models them consistently. The DSL at Mercy High School collaborates with the entire adult community to ensure that the school is peaceful and that student attendance, punctuality and a focus on high academic achievement never falter. The Director of Student Life will work directly with students, providing them ongoing mentorship and direction to successfully navigate their Mercy experience and beyond. The DSL may be required to teach up to one period each semester. Mercy High School educates women to pursue lives of spiritual and intellectual depth, determination, and daring action to improve our world as an inclusive, Catholic, college preparatory community enlivened by the Gospel of Jesus and the charism of the Sisters of Mercy. Click here for complete job description and instructions.