I plan to learn more about these organizations:

1. __________________________
2. __________________________
3. __________________________

Notes:

________________________
________________________
________________________

Community Service & Civic Engagement Opportunities for Youth

October 2017

TeaLink
We provide emotional support and resource referrals to youth ages 12-20 through our peer-to-peer telephone and chat helpline. Phone workers (ages 15-20) answer calls and chats, and provide emotional support. Outreach workers (ages 13-20) spread the word about Teen Link.

1-866-TEENLINK (866-833-6546)
teenlink@crisisclinic.org 866teenlink.org

University Family YMCA
We foster healthy living, social responsibility, and youth development. Do you have passion for the homeless? Are you a crafty person who would like to wrap gifts for families around the holidays? Volunteer with us!

Hillary Caryl 206.524.1400
hcaryl@seattleymca.org seattleymca.org

The Vera Project
Vera is an all ages, volunteer-run, music and art venue, at Seattle Center. We empower youth in the art industry, and provide a safe space for people to create. Volunteer at live concerts, and participate in our art gallery, audio, silk screening, and leadership committees!

Jessica Schollmeyer 206.956.8372
jessicas@theveraproject.org theveraproject.org

Washington Trails Association
The WTA protects and maintains trails throughout Washington. You can volunteer with us throughout the year maintaining trails. We work on trails everywhere from the city of Seattle to the backcountry. We welcome people of all abilities and experience levels!

Jacob Mandell 206.327.1899 (c)
jacob@wta.org wta.org

Woodland Park Zoo
ZooCorps offers teens a unique opportunity to increase their knowledge of animals and habitats, engage in conservation action, and develop useful job skills in a collaborative and fun learning environment at the zoo and in their community. Applications open in December for the 2018 training season.

206.548.2699
zoocorps@zoo.org zoo.org/zoocorps

Ballard Boys & Girls Club
Come join Keystone, a teen leadership group that organizes community service events! Meetings are every Monday at 6 PM. We also have opportunities for independent community service in our after school program. Help children with their homework or assist staff in running active & creative activities!

Jon Raduazzo 206.436.1872
jraduazzo@positiveplace.org positiveplace.org

Ballard NW Senior Center
We provide fun opportunities with flexible hours to complete high school homework and learn important skills. Help with evening & weekend events like: Rummage Sale, Holiday Bazaar, Taproot Theatre Event, Spring for Seniors Auction, etc. Or help afterschool as Program/Event/ Chefs/ Bookstore/Fundraising Asst.

Kristina Webberley 206.297.0403
KristinaW@SoundGenerations.org ballardseniorcenter.org/get-involved/volunteer/

Center for Wooden Boats
Seeking Student Docents from 11am-2pm on Saturdays & Sundays to engage visitors and introduce them to our wooden boat fleet. Volunteers may also work assisting boats on and off the docks and will have opportunities to ride along on our Public Sail and Steam Fleet. Training on dock safety, basic knots, and fleet info included.

Cassandra Sandkam 206.382.2628
csandkam@cwborg

Columbia Lutheran Home
Imagine the stories that a 100 year old can share about their life! Columbia Lutheran is home to 116 folks who range in age from 51-102 and they would love to visit with you. Join us for planned activities like bingo or bowling, music programs or dance classes.

Beth Hartman 206.633.6177
Bethhartman@columbialutheranhome.org columbialutheranhome.org

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society WA/AK Chapter
You can help make a difference in the lives of those touched by blood cancer. Opportunities include volunteering at events, helping at our office, participating in our Student Series and Student of the Year programs (where you can earn a college scholarship!) and more.

Katie Holmes 206.957.4577
Catherine.holmes@lls.org
lls.org/wa
Loyal Heights Community Center
Teen Program
Participate in fun, exciting and educational activities after school. We offer citywide service projects for students, and service learning opportunities at your local community center. Volunteers needed to help with our events, like the Halloween Carnival, Jingle Bell Bounce and Pancake Breakfast.

Ron Brown 206.684.4052
Ronald.Brown@seattle.gov seattle.gov/parks

Mountains to Sound Greenway Trust
We believe when we are connected with nature, our lives are better. Volunteers restore habitat and build recreation infrastructure to connect communities. Help us plant trees, remove invasive species, and maintain trails across the Greenway.
Claire Martini 206.373.1600
claire.martini@mtsgreenway.org mtsgreenway.org

Museum of Flight
Do you love space, science, aviation, or museums? Want to meet other students from the area, create your own STEAM activities, and have fun while learning volunteer hours? The Museum of Flight’s Museum Apprentice Program (MAP) is for you!

Julie Bowman 206.768.7187
jbowman@museumofflight.org museumofflight.org/education/museum-apprentice-program

Nature Consortium
We are part of Delridge Neighborhoods Development Association and work to integrate art, nature and neighborhood through conservation efforts. We restore and maintain forests throughout West Seattle, taking out invasive plants and planting native trees. Volunteer any Tuesday or Saturday year-round, rain or shine.

Ben Antonius ben@naturec.org
naturec.org

Nordic Heritage Museum
Share your talents with us! Short-term opportunities include helping at Yulefest (Nov 18-19), and other special events throughout the year. If you’re interested in getting more involved, we are seeking admin help in our Development Office. And stay tuned for more opportunities in our new Museum, opening in May!

Michael Ide 206.789.5707 x12 michael@nordicmuseum.org nordicmuseum.org

Outdoors for All Foundation
We enrich the lives of children and adults with disabilities through outdoors recreation. Sell programs at the Seahawks game, teach individuals with disabilities to ski or snowboard; volunteer in day camps when school is on break; help out in other programs including hiking, cycling, kayaking, rock climbing, and more.

Rachael DeGraffenried 206.838.6030 rachaeld@outdoorsforall.org outdoorsforall.org

Pacific Science Center
Join us this summer as part of our Science Educators in Training program. You will learn what it takes to lead hands-on interactive science lessons with kids ages PreK-8th. From the physics of roller coasters, to the chemistry of toasting marshmallows, to the secrets of baking the perfect cookie, you get to inspire kids about learning in the STEM field.

Morgan Hefner 206.443.3628
mhefner@paccsci.org paccsci.org/science-educators-in-training/

Phinney Neighborhood Assn & Greenwood Senior Center
The PNA works to build, engage and support our diverse community. Feed the homeless, teach seniors how to use their smart phones, help at special events (Dia de los Muertos, Winter Festival, Bingo set up, etc) or pick a task that works for you to bake, clean, put up posters & more.

LeAnne Chow 206.783.2244
leannec@phinneycenter.org phinneycenter.org/volunteer

Seattle Art Museum Teens
On Sat, 11/11 check out SAM’s Teen Night Out - designed for teens, by teens! SAM’s teen programs include Design your Neighborhood, a multi-session workshop focused on visual art, design, social change, and Teen Arts Group, a program for youth interested in leadership and learning about themselves and the world through art.

teens@seattleartmuseum.org seattleartmuseum.org/programs-and-learning/teens

Seattle Audubon Young Birders
YB is Seattle Audubon Society’s teen program, which focuses on exploring PNW habitats while learning about conservation, leadership, and environmentalism. Join us for a variety of fun events on evenings and weekends such as field trips, workshops, presentations, bird banding, citizen science, service projects, & movie nights.

Morgan Matthews 206.523.8243 x109
morgam@seattleaudubon.org seattleaudubon.org

Seattle Public Library
We bring people, information and ideas together to enrich lives and build community. Do you like to learn? Work on projects? Enjoy working by yourself and with others?

Lynn Miller (Ballard) 206.684.4089
lynn.miller@spl.org
Jesten Ray (Magnolia) 206.386.4225 x3
Jesten.Ray@spl.org
Shannon Wallace (Q&A) 206.386.4227
Shannon.Wallace@spl.org

Seattle ReCreative
Seattle ReCreative promotes creativity, community, and environmental stewardship through creative reuse and arts education. We need help organizing outreach programs. Available hours are during the week or on weekends.

Maria LaFrance 206.297.1528 volunteer@seattlerecreative.org seattlerecreative.org

Skully Serves
Skully Serves focuses on the promotion of youth volunteerism, service learning, and actively engaging youth in their communities. We partner with prominent bands and musicians and give our volunteers the opportunity to work alongside the musicians to take action on community outreach events that benefit diverse social causes, such as: environmental impacts, homelessness, LGBTQ+ rights, animal welfare and more.

Martese Mason 540.220.5352
mmason@skullyserves.com
SkullyServes.com

Soulimination
Soulimination celebrates the lives of children and parents facing life-threatening conditions by providing professional photographs of these special individuals and their families, free of charge. Seeking volunteers on Tuesdays from 3-5pm or special events. Crafty people needed to make beautiful gifts for our families or to raise money.

Kellie Kawahara-Niimi 206.297.0885
kellie@soulimination.org soulimination.org

Special Olympics Washington
We provide year-round sports opportunities to people with intellectual disabilities. Volunteers are needed for numerous sporting and non-sporting events across the state and throughout the year.

Elise Tinseth etinseth@sowa.org
sowa.org

SCA (Student Conservation Assn)
Youth ages 15-19 wanted for our Conservation Leadership Corps. Volunteer crews offer an opportunity to learn about conservation through hands-on work at specific sites. No experience is necessary and members receive a total of 90 service hours. Members attend one weekend event and one evening meeting per month, January-May.

Michael Helms 206.693.3147
mhelms@thesca.org thesca.org