

Bicentennial Celebration of the Unitarian Universalist Meeting House

The “Church” at the top of Church Street in Burlington, Vermont is soon to be 200 years old. It was constructed during the summer of 1816 and dedicated on January of 1817. You are invited by the Board of Trustees and the Bicentennial Task Force to participate in these activities to learn more about this historic building.

TOURS OF THE HISTORIC MEETING HOUSE

Saturday, October 15th

1am to 4pm (tours every half hour)

OPEN TO THE GENERAL PUBLIC

- Guides in period costume
- Historic articles, photos, and records on display
- Demonstrations of English Country Dance
(Saturday 2pm to 3pm)
- Outdoor labyrinth available for reflective walking
- Refreshments served

Sunday, October 16th

12:30pm to 2:30pm

(tours every half hour)

UU MEMBERS AND FRIENDS

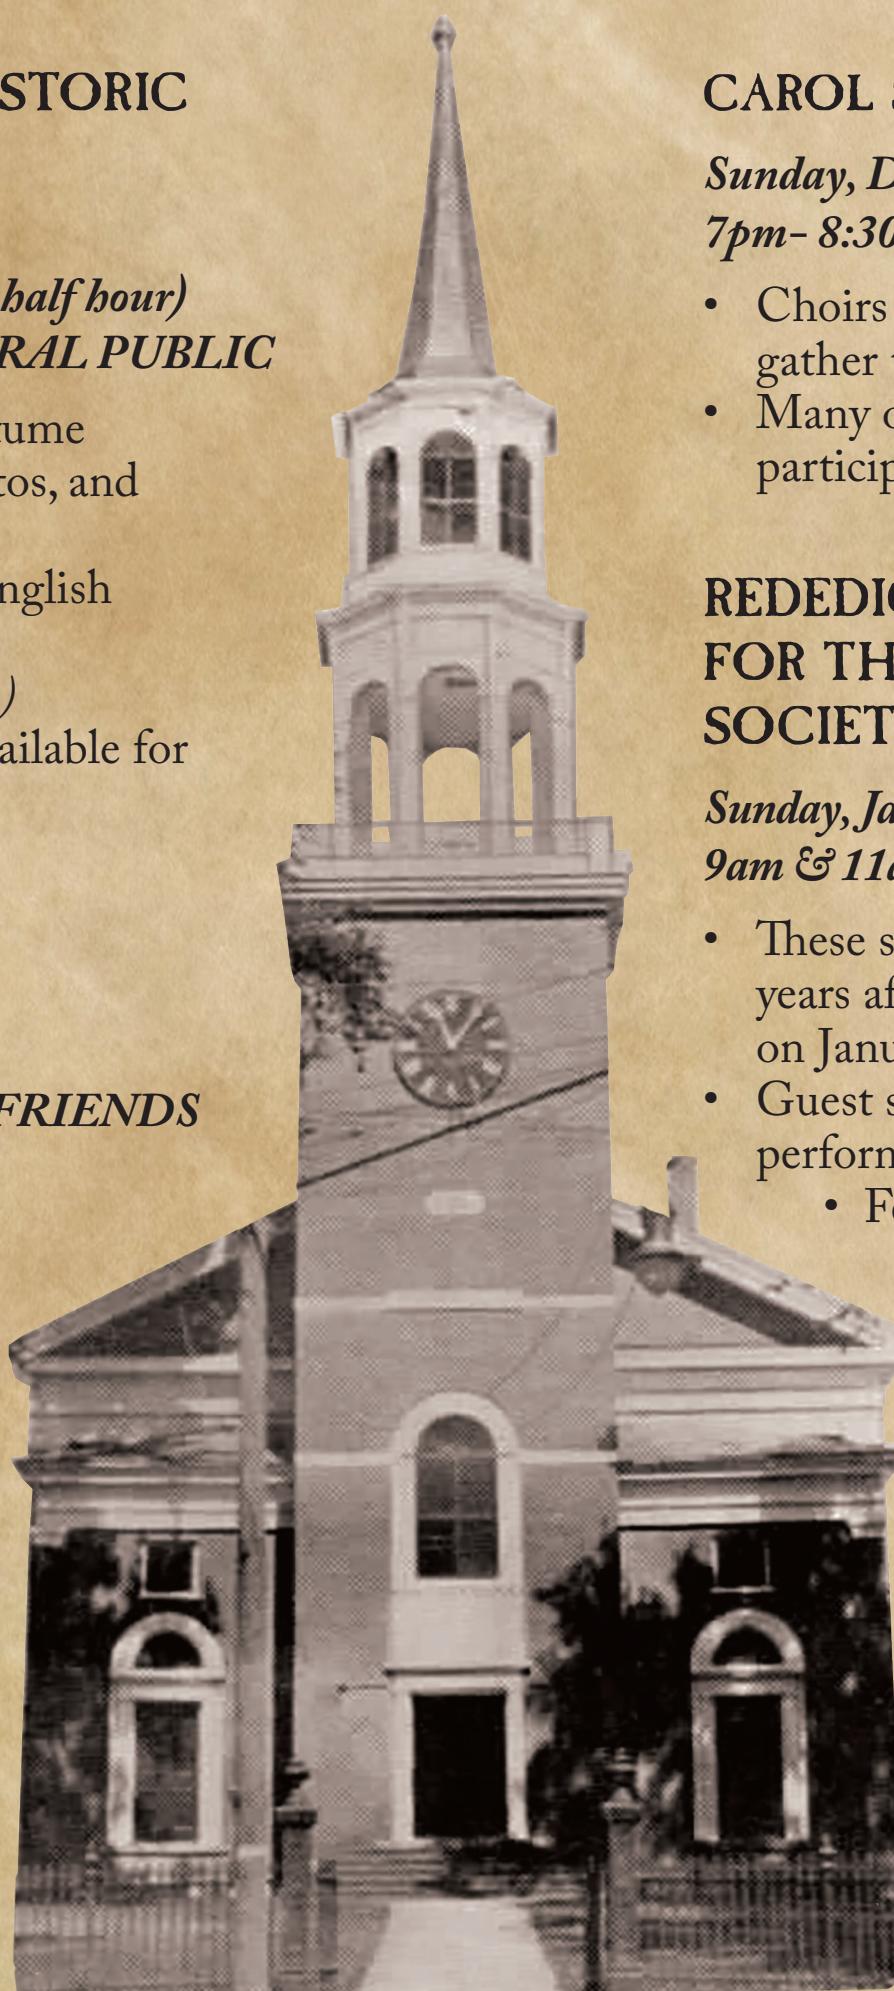

ORGAN CONCERT

Gentlemen Amateurs,
Immigrant Professionals,
and Ornery Yankees

Sunday, October 23rd

2pm

- Wayne Schneider, Featured Organist
- Some works by 19th Century New England composers will also feature our choir

CAROL SING EVENT

Sunday, December 4th

7pm- 8:30pm

- Choirs from area churches gather to sing seasonal gems
- Many opportunities for audience participation

REDEDICATION SERVICE FOR THE FIRST UU SOCIETY MEETING HOUSE

Sunday, January 8th

9am & 11am services

- These services will occur 200 years after the first dedication on January 9th, 1817
- Guest speakers, musical performance, historic story telling
 - Fellowship gatherings after each service

facebook.com/fuusb

firstuu_burlington

#FUUSB200