

History of Our 200-Year-Old Meeting House

Mary Gade

Questions you have never asked, but might wonder about:

- Has there always been a platform in front of the Sanctuary?
- When were the original box pews removed?
- Is the slate roof the original?
- Is the steeple the original?
- How would the Sanctuary look in European décor?

For the answers to these and other questions, help yourself to a copy of the booklet 1816 - 2016, The First Two Hundred Years of the Old Brick Meeting House of the First Unitarian Universalist Society of Burlington. It is now available, free of charge, in the Parlors and the main office.
