The Orthodox Way

Mission Statement: "To proclaim the Gospel of Christ in the Orthodox Tradition while creating a vibrant, loving, compassionate and supportive community."

Give Thanks and More Through Action

When we think of stewardship to the Church we often think only in terms of donating money, but stewardship is much more. To explore this, let's take a moment to reflect on how we think about work. In the second chapter of the Old Testament Book of Genesis we read, "The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it" (Genesis 2:15). God put man in the garden to work. It is part of God's plan for us that we work. In Exodus we read, "Six days you shall work, but on the seventh day you shall rest..." The world has changed and we may not be called upon to literally work the land, our work week may not be six days, yet we are created and called by God to work, and we can serve him through our work.

What comes to your mind when you think of the work that you do? Some are blessed to follow a career path that brings satisfaction. Others may find themselves in a position that is neither spiritually nor emotionally fulfilling. Most fall somewhere in between. Our work becomes sacred when we dedicate it to God. In the words of Mother Theresa, "Wherever God has put you, that is your vocation. It is not what we do, but how much love we put into it."

Life on earth is a gift. God gives us the talent, drive, know-how, and skills to work. The work we do is also a gift if we see it as an opportunity to serve God and others. Saint Paul instructs us, "Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord, not for men..." (Colossians 3:23). When we see our work in this way, we offer those things God gives back to Him.

What is work? I'm not merely referring to that for which we are paid to support our families.

The fundamental work we do is the Divine Liturgy, which culminates in Communion, or the Eucharist. The word Eucharist literally means thanksgiving. Prior to the consecration of the Gifts, the priest lifts them up and says, "We offer to these gifts from your own gifts, in all and for all." We give God what He gave to us so that He sanctifies and distributes back to us. This cycle is not simply a part of the worship that happens on Sundays, but is a model for how we should structure our lives--using the talents given to us by God, for which we are eternally thankful.

Our time and talents should be offered up to the Church body itself for glory. We can do this by participating in to weekly and Sunday liturgies, volunteering, joining one of our many ministries, etc. When we do this are also offering thanks to God through our actions.

Speaking of work, you may have heard we have a new staff member at St. Demetrios! Our new Church Office Supervisor, Karen S. Evans, began working here on October 16. She is a welcome addition to our team in the office and is already doing a great job. Some of you have met her, but if you have not, I encourage you to please stop by, say hello, and welcome her. With Karen on board, one of the goals we have is to create more opportunities, small and big, for people to use their talents to serve the Church. In the coming months, we are looking to develop opportunities for you to offer your talents and time to serve. If you have a skill you might want to offer that has not yet been tapped into before, please don't

Special Visit from Fr. Zacharias

Orthodox Home Fellowship Saturday, Nov 4

An exciting new ministry is beginning this Fall called Orthodox Home Fellowship. The idea is to bring people together for fellowship in a home of one of our church families, to spend time with one another, have a meal, and have a presentation on a topic relevant to all of us regarding our Orthodox Christian Faith. We hope to do this on a regular basis, every four to six weeks or so.

The first event will take place at the home of Chris and Vicki Pallis, on November 4th, 2017. A potluck meal will be served. We will have a very special guest and presenter to lead our first OHF, and that is Fr. Zacharias Zacharou of St. John the Baptist Monastery in Essex, England. Fr. Zacharias is a renowned theologian, and is the spiritual son of the late Elder Sophrony, and spiritual grandson of St. Silouan. He will be speaking to us about how to be an Orthodox Christian in the world today, with all its challenges.

You don't want to miss this opportunity to have an evening with your fellow friends from our parish, and an intimate evening with Fr. Zacharias. As the meal is potluck, we will need to know ahead of time who is coming and what you can bring for the meal. Please call the Pallis home at \(206\) 232-1113 or Vicki's cell at \(206\) 948-2922 to RSVP. Their home address is 9600 SE 33rd Street, Mercer Island, WA 98040.

Please note: for this event, a babysitting service is not provided.

A Message from our President

Dear Parishioners,

On behalf of Father Photios, Father Daniel, the Parish Council, and the Personnel Committee, please join us in welcoming our new staff members, Karen Evans, Office Supervisor, and Joe Howe, Bookkeeper.

We are excited to have both Karen and Joe join our St. Demetrios staff! Both are welcome additions to our team and come with the skills and abilities to excel.

Joe Howe

Karen joins us with many years of experience working in the court system, with success in process and policy implementation in her previous roles.

Joe comes highly recommended from the Assumption Church and brings his insightfulness and bookkeeping expertise.

Please be sure to stop by the office to introduce yourselves and welcome Karen and Joe (on Wednesdays) to our St. Demetrios family.

Karen Evans

Please join us in honoring Simoni Shirland for her 20+ years of exceptional and dedicated service to St Demetrios Church and our community on November 19th, 2017. We will serve a light lunch during coffee hour and offer an opportunity for everyone to wish her the best in her 'next chapter'. Simoni has been a wonderful asset to the community and she will be missed as a staff member, but she will remain a parishioner of our church and community. Please be sure to thank her for her efforts and for her service by joining us on the 19th.

Parish Council nominations are open for the upcoming elections. The term for a PC member is three years, this term is for 2018-2020. Elections will be held on 12/10. Please submit your nominees to the church office or to me at looneyegg@comcast.net by 11/25. If you'd like to attend a PC meeting for information or would like to speak to Father Photios or Father Daniel or any current PC member, please feel free to do so as we are happy to share what the expectations and obligations are. Also, please mark 12/3 for our last General Assembly meeting for the year - we will be discussing the 2018 budget and final operational reports. Please make every effort to attend.

Congratulations to Eleni Christofilis and Doug Chandler on being named St. Demetrios Citizens of the Year for 2017. Their ongoing dedication and love for the church and their ministries is appreciated and acknowledged! We are fortunate to have such wonderful volunteers in our community that lead by example and are humble in their efforts. Thank you and Congratulations!

Please note, in light of the current Archdiocese news regarding the recent financial situation, please access the following link that will take you to the news release, in full text, as presented by the Archdiocesan Treasurer, Michael Psaros. We are sure you will find pertinent information here that will clarify current and future plans to address the situation.

A Message from Karen

Yiasou!

My name is Karen S. Evans and I am one week into my job here at Saint Demetrios Church as Church Office Supervisor. I already love my job here: I do not yet speak Greek but I am learning to eat Greek. This community is filled with wonderful and welcoming people. Please feel free to stop by the Church office and introduce yourself. My hours are 9:30-5:30pm on weekdays, but I am looking forward to attending many Church functions. I attended the Saint Demetrios Greek Festival and had my favorite dish: salmon. I am learning about the Orthodox faith at a class taught by Father Photios on Wednesday nights here at the Church.

The best way to describe myself is as a native Northwesterner. I graduated from Anacortes High School, have an English degree from Western Washington University, and I am very good company if you are stuck in a three hour ferry line. My current passion outside of work is hiking the Cascades and Olympics. I grew up skiing, sailing and riding horses.

My children's names are: Erica Anne age 26, Angela Christine age 25, Christian Joshua age 20 and Luke Robert age 17. Christian goes to UW, and Luke lives with me and is a senior at Shorewood High School. My children have been the greatest blessing in my life.

I have been described as enthusiastic, dedicated and diplomatic. That means if we are working on a project together: I will get you involved, keep you involved and hopefully we won't tear our hair out. My motto in life is: be yourself. My philosophy is: kindness counts.

I have a big pink notebook I am working on with little projects around the Church that are perfect for anyone who wants a way to jump in, volunteer and partner with me in keeping our Church looking and feeling her best.

Karen S. Evans
Office Supervisor

Announcements

Yiayia & Friends Luncheon

Our next Yiayias & Friends luncheon will be on Thursday, November 2, at Kafe Neo, located at 21108 Highway 99 (Aurora) in Edmonds. Time is 11:30 a.m. There is a parking lot in front of the restaurant. I appreciate knowing how many to expect, so please let me know if you plan to attend. Contact me, preferably by email: mndamascus@comcast.net (or alternatively by phone: 509-951-2975). You do not have to be a Yiayia to join us! All women are invited!

PAPOUTHES GROUP: A Ministry for our Grandfathers

Please join us for our first Papouthes meeting on Monday, November 6, 2017. We will meet in the Fr. Homer Library at 11:00 am to discuss the details, events and activities for this new ministry.

Please contact Manuel Tramountanas at 206-783-4466 or agapemom@hotmail.com

Ministry Sunday November 12

Did you know that St. Demetrios has nearly 50 ministries? The ministries range from helping others to educating our parishioners to social gatherings. Ministry Sunday is a terrific time to find out more.

Please join us in the large hall after Divine Liturgy on November 12th for Ministry Sunday. Nearly every ministry will have a representative available for questions and discussion. There will be a "passport" activity for the young and young at heart.

Ministry Sunday isn't the only way to find out more or get involved. Each year your stewardship packet contains a ministry brochure and a commitment card. Please consider joining a ministry to grow your faith and engage in our community. Contact KarenSEvans@saintdemetrios.com

Sunday School Update

No Sunday School on November 26, 2017.

Join us for our annual Sunday School Christmas Program following Liturgy on Sunday, December 24, 2017 in the large hall. More details to follow in the December Orthodox Way.

This 'N' That Shop Christmas Sale

The This 'N' That Shop Chairpersons will have a Christmas sale on Sunday, December 3rd, after the Divine Liturgy. Please mark your calendar and come to shop for some great items that did not sale at the Festival.

All proceeds will go to Hurricane Maria relief fund.

Parish Council Elections, Sunday December 10th

All those who are interested in serving on the Parish Council for 2018-2020 (a three year commitment), need to fill out an application available in the church office and talk with Fr. Photios by Sunday, November 26th, and attend a Parish Council Seminar held by Fr. Photios at the Church office on Monday, November 27th at 7:00PM. Parish Council elections will be held on Sunday, December 10th, following the Divine Liturgy.

What you must be — according to the Archdiocesan Uniform Parish Regulations and our own Parish By-Laws:

- You must be eighteen years old or older;
- You must be a baptized and/or chrismated Orthodox Christian;
- You must live your life according to the faith and canons of the Orthodox Church;
- You must meet your financial obligation to the Parish; and must have done so at least one year prior to the date of election;
- You must abide by the Uniform Parish Regulations and the Parish By-Laws;
- You must attend an Interview/Orientation Session with the priest prior to the elections.

What you must not be — according to the same documents as quoted above:

- You must not retain membership in a non-Orthodox religion, nor in an “Orthodox” parish which defies the jurisdiction or the ecclesiastical authority of the Archdiocese;
- You must not deliberately disregard nor transgress the moral law as may be determined by a Spiritual Court;
- You must not be a salaried employee of the Parish.

What does living your life “according to the faith and canons of the Church” imply?

Chapter I, Article VII, Section 6, of our Parish By-Laws:

“The religious, moral, and social duties of a parishioner are to apply the tenets of the Orthodox Faith to his or her life and activities, to attend the Divine Liturgy and other Services of worship faithfully on Sundays and Holy Days, to keep the rules and fasts of the Orthodox Tradition, to receive frequently the Sacraments of Penance and Holy Communion, to train and teach the youth according to the Faith and Spirit of Orthodoxy, to respect the Clergy, the ecclesiastical authority, and all governing bodies of the Church, to be obedient in matters of faith and ecclesiastical order, and to cooperate in every way towards the welfare and prosperity of the Parish and the success of its Sacred Mission”

NOON Years Eve Party

Join us on December 31st for a “Noon Years Eve” Party. After Divine Liturgy, join us for a special coffee hour and count down to the new year at Noon. No need for the kids to stay up late! Join us for a party at church and stay to watch the Seahawks vs Cardinals game on the big screen!

Liturgy starts at 9:30 am, Seahawks play at 1:25 pm. Spend the last day of 2017 with friends and our parish family.

Reservations not needed. Just come for the fun. To donate a dish for the pot luck lunch, please contact Karen at 206-631-2503 or by email at karensevans@saintdemetrios.com.

Philoptochos News

Message from President Nina

Our chapter had its first meeting of the year and it will be a busy one. In addition to the regular committees, we have added a Social Services Committee to help with a variety of needs. We are currently assisting two families from Greece with sick children being treated at Seattle Childrens Hospital. Our One Warm Coat Drive begins again and we continue our feeding the homeless programs. I continue to be amazed at all that our ladies do to alleviate suffering and provide comfort to all. On November 5th, we will honor our departed Philoptochos Sisters whose legacy of love and service inspires us. I hope you will consider joining us this year, all are welcome.

Matthew Gray

Matthew has moved to a facility in Colorado that better suits his needs. You can read about his progress at the caringbridge site: <https://www.caringbridge.org/visit/matthewgray> or ask to be a friend of his dad Jim Gray on Facebook.

His friends have started a "gofundme" to help defray some of the costs. If you feel moved to donate the link is below: <https://www.gofundme.com/matthew-grays-medical-fund>.

The Gray family is extremely grateful for everyone's prayers is which they believe has made a huge difference in Matthew's recovery. They also really appreciate the messages people are posting on Facebook and the caringbridge site. Please keep praying for Matthew and his family Andrea, Jim, Abby and Elizabeth. They feel that love will create miracles in their journey.

Upcoming Meeting Schedule:

All are welcome to attend our meetings and events:

- November 1— One Warm Coat Drive Begins
- November 5th – Memorial for departed Philoptochos Sisters
- November 12th - Sinatra Chocolate Wine Ball at Herban Feast
- November 16th - cook for St Martin de Porres Men's Shelter
- November 19th – regular meeting after Divine Liturgy
- November 19th – Make A Difference Sunday, a joint project with the Sunday School
- November 22nd - cook for Jubilee Women's Center
- November 30th - cook for St Martin de Porres Men's Shelter

Please Join Us for the Sinatra Chocolate Wine Ball

Sunday, November 12th please join Camp Agape Northwest for an elegant evening at Herban Feast. Our 9th annual celebration will feature a seasonal dinner menu, Washington wines and chocolatiers, and the music of Frank Sinatra. Proceeds from the event will benefit Camp Agape, a camp for children with cancer and their families. Again this year there will not be an auction. Tickets are available at www.brownpapertickets.com for $100. Tables of 10 are available for $875. Camp Agape will have a table at the festival to tell the story of our camp and tickets will be available there. For more information, contact susanreichmann@yahoo.com or call 425.772.1605.

One Warm Coat Drive

Winter is approaching quickly and for homeless families the chill of rainy Seattle is a constant and unwelcome companion. We will again be collecting new and gently used warm coats and outerwear for men, women and children to provide vital warmth in harsh weather. A barrel will be in the Narthex for donations so please look through your closets or purchase items that we can distribute to those in need. Thank you for your help!

Make a Difference with Philoptochos and the Children of Our Parish

On November 19th, our Philoptochos Chapter will once again partner with the Sunday School for Make-A-Difference day. Our goal is to engage in this "cross-generational" initiative (i.e., Philoptochos and children) not only to make a difference but also to do so in honor of His Eminence Archbishop Demetrios' Name Day which is on October 26th. Since 2015, our Philoptochos has provided cards in which Sunday School students said "thank you" to Veterans for their service. The cards were then sent to the local VA hospital for distribution to the Vets. This year we will also again be making "get well cards" for patients at Seattle Children's Hospital.

We are the ideal partners for our children in this initiative, bringing together the energy of our youth and the talent and teaching of the Philoptochos. If you would like to join us on November 19th, please contact Susan Reichmann at susanreichmann@yahoo.com or call 425.772.1605

Mommy & Me

Next meeting
Sunday, November 5

November's Theme:

"Keeping Christ at the center of our holidays"

Join us in the Toy Room (unless otherwise noted) directly after communion (think of it as pre-Sunday School!) for a bit before moving down to coffee hour. In each meeting we discuss a subject that affects our children and community, and share ways to support one another--our Orthodox Christian faith and our culture are at the center of these conversations.

For more information, and to join the St. Demetrios Mommy & Me Facebook group, please contact Pres Michelle Triant at michelle.triant@gmail.com

Next Mommy & Me Date:

December 3: "What to do with all those TOYS."

Orthodoxy on Tap Book Study

Orthodoxy on Tap is for all college students and young adults. This ministry is a chance for us to meet and talk about our faith in a social environment. We continue in November to meet and discuss Everywhere Present: Christianity in a One-Storey Universe by Stephen Freeman. If you would like to join us, please contact Lefteris Sitaras or Fr. Daniel Triant. Books are available at the St. Demetrios Bookstore. Join us even if you haven't read the book.

- Tuesday, November 7, Fr. Homer Library at 7:00 pm
- Tuesday, November 14, Fr. Homer Library at 7:00 pm

Tuesday, November 28,

Join us for a special Thanksgiving Meal together to celebrate Thanksgiving. Location to be announced in the weekly eNews.

Thanks from our Festival Chairman

So many of you to thank for another successful Festival. I can't begin to name all that assisted with setup and baking this year and if I did I am sure I would miss somebody so I would like to thank all of the parishioners who came out for baking, food preparations, tent setup, tent removal, and all who donated either monetary or product to the success of this years Festival. Without all of this help and support we could not have pulled off this success. Most of all I want to praise our Lord and savior Jesus Christ who blessed us with great weather, a great turn out, and blessed us with another successful festival.

In His Name,

Jim Kost, Festival Chairman

Thanks from This & That

A big "Thank You" to everyone who helped the This and That Shop this year with their donations, time and talent. We were very successful with a total of $8299.14!

Many people ask me what happens to all the "stuff" when we finish. Well, I believe in "Highest and Best Use" of all the items we collect. (No, I don't work for the Tax Assessor's Office.) Items such as purses, scarves, costume jewelry etc. are distributed to Jubilee Women's Center which of course we know as an organization that Georgene Karambelas, Patti Kost and the Philoptochos Ladies have been working with for many years. St. Francis House, takes housewares, blankets, towels, clocks and lamps for people coming out of homelessness and are getting into housing. This organization was brought to my attention by Kathy Chohlas-Wood. Treehouse and a Women Infant and Children's program that Kathy Mitalas has brought to our attention receive the books, stuffed animals and anything child related. Of course, our church gets items that are useful to the kitchen, and cloth items such as tablecloths stained and torn sheets towels are given to ReText which makes them into new items such as cleaning cloths, insulation etc. We also gave the rest of "The Good Stuff" to Holy Apostles for their rummage sale, which is to take place later this year. Everything else goes either to Goodwill or NW Center. I encourage all ideas, please let me know of any organizations that are close to your hearts for next year. My number is 206.783.5087.

Sincere thanks to Kay Betts, Maria Stavros, Dorothy Haskell, Hannah Karis and Betty Lavaris. Also, "Thank You" to Maria Kaltsounis who us helped with the cleanup after the festival, and Litsa Polychronopoulos cheering us on, with her beautiful smile! It doesn't happen without them!

Thank You, Mary

Bookstore News

The holiday season is quickly approaching and November is a great month to start your shopping. We will be getting new items throughout the month so be sure to stop by and visit. We also have a nice collection of gift items in stock such as icons, children's books and Christmas cards. Please submit all special order requests within the next few weeks to allow enough time for delivery before Christmas.

Interested in deepening your understanding of Orthodoxy? There are currently two book clubs reading Everywhere Present: Christianity is a One-Storey Universe by Stephen Freeman. Consider joining the daytime reading group for adults or Orthodoxy on Tap, an evening reading group for young adults. Orthodoxy 101 classes are also underway and are covering a variety of topics. You are encouraged to participate in one or all topics that are of interest. Stop by the bookstore to pick up a copy of the recommended books such as The Orthodox Way or The Orthodox Church by Bishop Kallistos Ware, Beginning to Pray by Metropolitan Anthony Bloom, For the Life of the World by Father Alexander Schmemmann or The Way of a Pilgrim.

Thanksgiving is Thursday, November 23. Your bookstore staff thanks you for your support throughout the year. It's a pleasure being your first stop for Orthodox books and gift items. If you are interested in working at the bookstore please visit our table at the Ministry Sunday event on November 12.

Wishing you a blessed Thanksgiving with your family and friends.

hesitate to call the office and talk to Karen. As we ramp things up we will be sending out announcements, so keep an eye out!

Finally as the feast of Thanksgiving approaches, I pray that we all have a blessed one. While we enjoy the blessings God has given us on that day through fellowship and food, I urge you to consider the talents God has given you in your life. Give some thought to how you can harness them and offer them back to His Church. This is the greatest expression of thanks we can give.

To Him be all the glory, honor and worship!

In Christ,

+Fr. Daniel Triant
