The Orthodox Way

Mission Statement: "To proclaim the Gospel of Christ in the Orthodox Tradition while creating a vibrant, loving, compassionate and supportive community."

Feast of the Indiction

Beloved in the Lord,

The Feast of the Indiction is upon us, the beginning of the New Ecclesiastical Year. Along with this Feast we also celebrate the American Labor Day holiday. Families and friends will gather one more time in order to mark the end of summer and inaugurate the activities of autumn. Created in the late nineteenth century, the intent of Labor Day was to honor the American worker. We should remember that dimension of this holiday.

The Ecclesiastical year provides us with a new opportunity to renew our labors as individuals, families, and communities of faith. When the Lord began His ministry, He read from the Prophet Isaiah, "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release of the captives and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty those who are oppressed, to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord." (Luke 4:18-19, cf Isaiah 61:1). The Lord has given us a "to do list" to guide our labor. His words should inspire us as we begin this New Year.

Labor is honorable and part of God's plan for humanity. In the Book of Genesis (2:15) we read, "The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to till it and keep it." The Lord made us responsible for the planet on which we live. Through our labor, Earth sustains us. Through our labor, we have used many natural resources to build and to create amazing cities and cultures, to cure and heal many illnesses and diseases, and to lift up humanity overall. In the Divine Liturgy we offer the natural gifts of God, transformed by human labor, back to God. That is the meaning of the exclamation in the Liturgy, "Thine own of Thine own, we offer to Thee..."

In our quest to improve life, we may have forgotten the honorable and potentially divine intent of our labors. We have been overtaken by greed and desires that have led us to misuse our planet's resources and gifts, forgetting that they are gifts from God. A consequence of the fall of Adam, sin, has infected our good and natural desires. As His All-Holiness Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew has taught us for nearly three decades, committing a crime against the natural world is a sin. Our Patriarch states, "If human beings were to treat one another's personal property the way they treat the natural environment, we would view that behavior as anti-social and illegal. We would expect legal sanctions and even compensation. When will we learn that to commit a crime against the natural world is also a sin?" This connection means that we must labor to protect the natural world and to restore any damage that human activity and our footprint has caused. But we must also reflect on our labor, how our misdirected desires, have led to these sins against the natural world, resulting in pollution, extinction of God-created flora and fauna and more, and as a result the degradation of human life.

We must also extent our reflections into the other environments in which we live, but especially our life in this society. We must consider the pollution of our contemporary civil discourse. It is not very "civil" at all. It too has been polluted and thus has degraded our lives. As the Assembly of Bishops recently stated, "The Orthodox Church emphatically declares that it does not promote, protect or sanction participation in ... acts of hatred, racism, and discrimination, and proclaims that such beliefs and behaviors have no place in any community based in respect for the law and faith in a loving God." These, too, are sins that separate us from God and divide us from one another; sins for which we must ask God's forgiveness and mercy. We, as faithful members of His Church, must also labor to protect civil discourse and to restore it to the purpose for which it was created, the edification of humanity, to build up the Body of Christ (Ephesians 4:12).

The time is now, my brothers and sisters in the Lord, to embrace the start of the New Ecclesiastical Year and re-purpose our labors: to become instruments of healing, reconciliation, and justice, to become better stewards of the Earth, and better citizens. This New Ecclesiastical Year offers us a new opportunity to recommit ourselves to this task in all our labors.

May the Lord guide your steps throughout this New Year, and may His abiding love grace and mercy be granted to you always.

BOOKSTORE NEWS

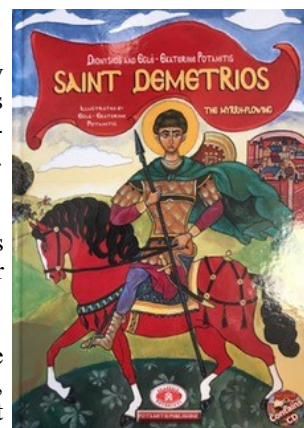

SOURAPAS FAMILY FEATURED IN NEWLY-PUBLISHED BOOK; Congratulations to Steve Sourapas, the donor with his family of the St. Demetrios Bookstore facility, who has written a new book along with Rosanne Gostovich Royer. A Seattle Greek Immigrant Family's Soft Drink Business is profusely illustrated with photos and documents, many in color. The 310-page hardcover volume chronicles the history of the Sourapas family and the business Steve's father James founded in 1919, including the retail world as they experienced it. The book also presents an overview of the life of Greeks in America, and more specifically the Seattle Greek Community. Copies are available for purchase at our St. Demetrios Bookstore.

POTAMITIS BOOKS NOW IN STOCK: Many of the children's books by Dionysios and Egle Ekaterine Potamitis in Greece, written in English and richly decorated with Byzantine style iconic figures, are now in stock in the St. Demetrios Bookstore. Here are some examples of three types of Potamitis books: My Baptism, an illustrated book for the whole family, and often requested, recounts each event of the baptism with both full-size illustrations and whimsical pictograms in the text itself—perfect for reading aloud or for young readers. The keepsake book includes 11 activity pages and a full theological explanation of the sacrament. Also it is an ideal gift for those kids/families invited to the Baptism of your child, or godchild. Perfect for preschool - early elementary.

St. Demetrios the Myrrhbearer by Dionysios Potamitis, illustrated by Egle-Ekaterine Potamitis tells the life of the Holy Martyr St. Demetrios of Thessalonica, and describes many miracles performed by him. Beautiful full color illustrations. Includes a CD of the book read aloud by Dr. Crissi Hart. Large format, 26 pages, hardcover.

Hand-held Books: Delightful, reasonably priced small books of many titles for little children's hands, including the four shown here and many more.

VISIT THE BOOKSTORE AT THE FESTIVAL for the myriad of books as well as replenished prayer rope bracelets, prayer ropes, diptychs, oil lamps, icons, and lots of other gift items.

SPECIAL ORDERS: Your bookstore staff members (Heather, Lindsay, and Theodora), are glad to take your requests for items that may not be in stock. With upcoming special events, please allow ample time for research, placement and arrival of your orders from

Message from President Nina

President Nina is enjoying a well deserved vacation in Greece and will return with her message in October.

Camp Agape NW 2017

This year we hosted 19 families at Camp Agape NW. This was made possible by the hard work of the Philoptochos chapters of St Demetrios, The Assumption, Holy Apostles and St Nicholas and the love of over 135 volunteers. Thanks to all who helped throughout the year who gave their time, donations, and prayers. A full report will be in next months column.

Sadly, we ask you to please join us in prayer for Matthew Gray, son of Jim and Andrea Gray, and a counselor at Camp Agape. Matthew had a tragic fall from his second story dorm window at Washington State University and while he is recovering from a successful surgery, he is fighting for his life. His mom Andrea is a beloved Camp Agape Board member and faithful Philoptochos Sister.

Here is a link to the news story about Matthew:

<http://www.king5.com/mobile/article/news/local/father-of-wsu-student-who-fell-out-dorm-window-demands-better-safety-features/468792823>

You can read about the surgery and his progress at the caring-bridge site the family has started:

<https://www.caringbridge.org/visit/matthewgray>

His friends have started a "gofundme" to help defray some of the costs. If you feel moved to donate the link is below:

<https://www.gofundme.com/matthew-grays-medical-fund>

The Gray family has said that everyone's prayers is what has made the difference in Matthew. They also really love the messages people are posting on Facebook and the caringbridge site. Please keep praying for Matthew and his family. They feel that love is helping them power through this.

Please Join Us for the Sinatra Chocolate Wine Ball

Sunday, November 12th please join Camp Agape NW for an elegant evening at Herban Feast. Our 9th annual celebration will feature a seasonal dinner menu, Washington wines and chocolatiers, and the music of Frank Sinatra. Proceeds from the event will benefit Camp Agape, a camp for children with cancer and their families. Again this year, there will not be an auction so that you may enjoy more time for wine, chocolate and friends.

Tickets are available at www.brownpapertickets.com for $100 or if purchased by Sunday, September 24th only $90 per person. Reserved tables of 10 are available for $875. Camp Agape will have a display at the festival to tell the story of our camp and tickets will be available there. For more information, contact susanreichmann@yahoo.com or call 425.772.1605.

It's Not Too Late to Join Philoptochos

We are always happy to have new members join our group! We hope you will support us with your annual dues of $40 and join us when you can for fellowship. All are welcome and if you have time to donate in addition to your check, even better. You will not receive a call when you write a check as we are a volunteer organization and we are grateful for every member whatever their participation. We realize that not everyone is able to come to our meetings but your dues are what allows us to do the work of Philoptochos and are gratefully accepted. To join, please contact Lena LaMarche at 206.383.6934 or floss4life2@gmail.com.

Philoptochos Visitation of Parishioners

If you know of a parishioner who would enjoy a visit from Philoptochos, please contact our Visitation Chairperson Kay Betts at 206.546.2370 or yassou@frontier.com. Kay and her committee members look forward to hearing from you and to bring news of our parish to those who are not able to come to church.

Jubilee Womens Center

Thank you to Georgene Karambelas who continues to volunteer at Jubilee and brought this wonderful opportunity to our chapter. The monthly dinners continue to be a huge success, enjoyed by the ladies at Jubilee and our families who have provided the diners. Clothing donations are welcome ~ extra large clothing is especially needed but all sizes are welcome. If you would like to sponsor a monthly meal for the ladies at Jubilee or for more information, contact Georgene at 206.829.9337 or karambelas@comcast.net.

Dress for Success

Georgene Karambelas will continue the clothing collection. Until the festival is over, donations can be dropped off in the church office. If you need a receipt, please leave your contact information attached to your donation. Questions? Call Georgene at 206.829.9337 or karambelas@comcast.net.

All Saints Camp 2017

It was a beautiful summer at All Saints Camp as close to ninety youth and teens from nine parishes went "Under Construction" and learned what it truly means to Build community with each other and keep building our relationship with God.

Our High School campers also participated in a YES Retreat (Youth Equipped to Serve), a formative two days of service that bridged the gap between the rich and the poor and brought participants to an awareness of Christ in themselves and others.

Our Advanced and Elementary Campers enjoyed great discussions with our clergy, played dodgeball and kickball, made prosphoro, raced Junkyard Cars, made new friends, cleaned their cabins, played Hungry Human Hippos, performed at the Olympics, shared their talents, swam at the pool, fished and canoed at the dock, performed skits about the Saints, and sang nightly at the campfire.

High School Camp

We sincerely thank everyone who made the summer so meaningful...

Our Clergy:

August Appreciation From Jubilee Women's Center

The residents at JWC were very thankful to receive a delicious dinner provided by St. Demetrios parishioners: Athanasia Kalasountas, Christina Meletis, John and Eleni Christofilis.

Many of the women are currently in school or working, and enjoy coming home and not have to worry whether or not they have food. The meals we provide help our low income neighbors stretch their budgets, as well as takes away a bit of stress at the end of the day.

If you would like information on providing a meal, donating clothing or volunteering at Jubilee Women's Center, please contact Georgene Karambelas at 206 817 2523 or karambelas@comcast.net

Hurricane Harvey: Prayers and Support Requested Dearly Beloved in the Lord,

We have all been apprised of the devastation brought about by Hurricane Harvey which has caused tremendous damage and displaced thousands of people. The effects of the storm are increasing with ongoing rain and new threats of flooding. Images of people being rescued from rooftops, cars submerged in water, and boats floating through the town to take people to safety give us just a glimpse into the disrupted lives of the people in the path of this deadly storm.

It will be several weeks, if not months, before the full effects of Hurricane Harvey are determined. Loss of life, loss of homes, and loss of livelihood are just some of what is facing the residents of the Houston area. People have fled the devastation with very few of their belongings but they will have many needs for the basic necessities of life.

It is our sacred obligation to offer our support to the residents of the greater Houston area and all those who are in the path of Hurricane Harvey. I encourage each parish in the Metropolis of San Francisco to pray for all those who are affected by the hurricane, and also pass a special tray on Sunday, September 3, 2017 to collect funds to assist those in need. All contributions collected for this purpose should be directed to:

International Orthodox Christian Charities
110 West Road, Suite 360
Baltimore, MD 21204

Donations for Hurricane Harvey relief can also be made directly to IOCC on their website. Let us beseech our heavenly Father to preserve us from every probable calamity and, through God's love, let us find strength and comfort to support those suffering from this devastation.

With Love in Christ,
+ Metropolitan Gerasimos
of San Francisco
