Fr. Zacharias is a monk of over 40 years in the Patriarchal Stavropegic Monastery of St. John the Baptist, in Essex, England and a disciple of Elder Sophrony (of blessed memory), and the spiritual grandson of St. Silouan. He studied Theology in Paris and Thessalonica, and is fluent in Greek, Russian, French and English. While studying for his Ph. D, Father Zacharias wrote his doctoral dissertation entitled “Christ, Our Way and Our Life.” He has since published many books in multiple languages, and has extensively lectured internationally. It is a rare opportunity to have him with us. He will be speaking to us about how to be an Orthodox Christian in the world today, with all it’s challenges. You don’t want to miss this opportunity to meet Fr. Zacharias and hear all that he has to share with us.
