A Message from Fr. Photios

Holy Week 2018

My Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are now approaching the end of our Lenten Journey, and soon we will accompany our Lord to Bethany, where we will witness the raising of Lazarus. Then, we will travel on to Jerusalem, where we will participate in Christ's triumphal entry into the city. A few days later, we will be with Him in the upper room, celebrating the last supper, only to witness His betrayal by one of His disciples and then be delivered up to Crucifixion the following morning. We will stand at the foot of the cross and look upon Christ our God, in His extreme humility, hanging on the tree. We will watch Joseph of Arimathea take our Lord down from the cross and follow along as our God is placed in the tomb. Finally, on Holy Saturday Evening, we will return to the tomb to behold the most glorious event in the history of mankind, our Lord's Resurrection from the dead.

Saint Paul, in His second letter to the Apostle Timothy, commands Timothy to "Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, descended from David, as preached in my gospel." Saint Paul, however, does not just tell Timothy this in order to remind him of Christ and His Crucifixion and Resurrection, but implores him, "Meditate upon these things; give yourself wholly to them" (1Timothy 4:14)!

Great Lent and especially Holy Week is indeed the time when we meditate and give up ourselves wholly to our Lord. According to Saint Athanasios the Great, "constant attention to and meditation upon godly teaching strengthens devotion to God and produces a love for Him, which, being deeper than mere words, is actually inseparable from Him." The whole purpose for our meditation and participation in Holy Week, is therefore to be united with Christ. Holy Week is, above all, a mystery where we enter into the unfathomable depths of God's love. It is a mystery which is difficult to understand and comprehend: Jesus Christ, both God and Man... Crucified? How can this be? Jesus Christ, Resurrected from the dead on the third day? The wonder of it all! God has become one of us. He has taken up the very same flesh that you and I wear, that we are. Human blood, that precious living and life-giving fluid, totally un-reproducible by any technology, blood like yours and mine, flows in the veins and arteries of the God made man. Considering the immensity of the universe, and... humbled by the greatness of the One Who fashioned every detail of it, we

A Message from Karen

April marks my six month anniversary here at Saint Demetrios. The pace of events and responsibilities has been constant and an opportunity to challenge myself. The atmosphere has been incredibly welcoming and I am grateful to be learning how to be the best possible Church Office Supervisor.

In the last two weeks, we have been working on Spring Cleaning. The cabinets in Small Kitchen and Staff Kitchen have been sanitized by a hard working volunteer. The white concrete roofs have been pressure washed and sprayed with a cleaning treatment. The arborist for Seattle Trees came by to do an analysis on our Poplar trees and gave us a list of approved tree services to begin the dead wood removal and even is allowing us to remove two dead trees by the permitting process. The second phase of this project will include the analysis and possible removal of a dead Honey Locust tree on the Boyer side of the property. We have Jim Kost to thank for alerting me to this. Thank you Jim, I appreciate all suggestions for maintenance to the property. It is part of my job to monitor the facility and provide Parish Council the information to formulate an action plan.

I was delighted to finish framing the portraits of the Bishops now hanging outside of the Church Office. Installation of hangers for these portraits was incredibly challenging as the wall is brick. Thank you to Tedros and Sam Trepedinas for bringing in the big drill to accomplish our mission. We also found a beautiful piece of calligraphy artwork that had been donated to the Church in years past but had not yet been framed. It is the Lord's prayer in Greek and now hangs proudly in the Father Homer Library for us all to enjoy. Another recent installation is an auxiliary doorbell at our Front Door. You may still use the intercom to buzz the office telephone, but the doorbell is an excellent backup and rings lovely chimes through the lobby.

The mission of the Church is best expressed through our priest, Father Photios. Now you will be able to hear his message and counsel more clearly because we had the sanctuary and small hall retrofitted with an updated sound system. The new speakers broadcast more clearly, loudly and the equalizer has eliminated pops and buzzes.

April will be the month we begin our new merchant services for using Visa/Mastercard/Discover and possibly American Express. Over time, the new lower rate will save the Church money that can be used for philanthropic purposes, and the new system is up to date in regards to the most secure transactions.

Thank you for continuing to increase communication via the Church office so that we can coordinate activities and share our meeting rooms, kitchens and halls. I believe an online calendar for reserving rooms may be online soon. I am quick to return emails and phone messages if you don't reach me on the first try.

I am looking forward to my first Pascha season at Saint Demetrios.

Lenten Service Project

Our 2018 Sunday School Lenten Service Project is sponsoring a food drive for the Seattle Ronald McDonald House (www.rmhcseattle.org). The Ronald McDonald House provides a caring home away from home for families of seriously ill children who receive medical treatment in Seattle. Housing is provided at low or no cost to these special families who often travel from across the country for treatment in Seattle. Within the Ronald McDonald House is a food pantry, free of charge, for families to select basic food items to make a simple meal or have a snack. Donating food helps to alleviate some of the financial strain experienced as well as provides comfort and security for the over 80 families who reside there each night.

Throughout Lent, are having a class contest to collect food for the Ronald McDonald House.

As of March 18, 2018, we have collected 248 cans of food! We will be collecting food donations through April 1, 2018. Details of the winning classes will be announced in the May issue of the Orthodox Way.

Philoptochos News

A Message from President Nina

During this Lenten season, I am filled with gratitude for the faithful Philoptochos ladies of Saint Demetrios. Our Lenten Retreat on March 3rd was the perfect beginning to this season and we look forward to another retreat next year. Thank you to everyone who made it such a success.

I continue marvel at the commitment of the ladies and all that they do. I would like to thank everyone who came to bake for our Easter Bake Sale and to dye the red eggs for our Pascha celebration. It is a lot of work and they come cheerfully all week to complete the many tasks.

Thank you to our parish for their generous contributions to the annual Philoptochos Diaper Drive. Kathy Mitalas will have a report next month of all of the families we were able to help with your generous donations.

The Warm Coat Drive has been very successful over the winter months and it is good to know that many men, women and children have been warmer during the cold weather, thanks to you.

The Missions Possible Campaign to grow Orthodoxy in America continues until Pentecost. Take home a canister to fill to help small parishes achieve sustainability and help all parishes share the Gospel in the American mission field. There is more information at www.groworthodoxy.org.

You will be receiving the Camp Agape NW annual Fund-A Dream mailing soon. This year's theme is "Give a Piece of Your Heart to Camp Agape" and a small red heart is enclosed for you to write a note to the campers and mail back with your donation. You can also donate and sign a heart online to support children with cancer and their families.

My heartfelt thanks and wishes for a blessed Pascha to all,

Nina

Forgiveness: Turning Wounds into Wisdom Lenten Retreat

The Philoptochos-sponsored all-day Lenten retreat on Forgiveness held on March 3 was a huge success thanks to the hard work of our planning committee. Approximately 100 participants took part in an interactive session facilitated by Cynthia Kostas, who flew in from Houston to lead the group to a better understanding of the spiritual practice of forgiveness. A delicious Lenten luncheon was prepared and served by our talented and dedicated Philoptochos women. Based on the positive feedback received, we plan to make the Lenten retreat an annual event!

Upcoming Meeting/Event Schedule:

All are welcome to attend our meetings and events:

April 15th regular meeting after Divine Liturgy

April 19th cook for St Martin de Porres Mens Shelter

April 25th cook for Jubilee Womens Shelter

Membership Continues for 2018

We hope you will continue to support us with your annual dues of $40 and join us when you can for fellowship. All are welcome and if you have time to donate in addition to your check, even better. You will not receive a call when you write a check as we are a volunteer organization and we are grateful for every member whatever their participation. We realize that not everyone is able to come to our meetings but your dues are what allows us to do the work of Philoptochos and are gratefully accepted. Camp Agape NW

Camp Agape NW Volunteer Applications are Ready

Camp Agape NW volunteer and visitor applications are now available @ <http://campagapenw.net/volunteers/> The deadline is April 15th for all volunteers, staff, and visitors. Nursing staff applications are due by June 1st. Week-long volunteers arrive on Saturday, July 21 at 3:00 pm and depart on Saturday, July 28 at 3:00 pm. Camp dates are July 23-28, 2018. Camp Agape NW is for kids with cancer and their health and safety is our first priority. Many of the children have weakened immune systems therefore there are stringent criteria for all volunteers and visitors. Therefore everyone on campus is required to fill out an application form and have a health screening by a camp nurse upon arrival on campus. Up to date vaccinations are required as well.

Each applicant must complete their own application using their own log on and password, please do not attempt to use the "register another person" function. Returning volunteers who have used the online application system in the past only need to sign on using the same email address and simply update the form. The majority of your application data will carry over from last year, please double check that everything is current and accurate before submitting the form. In order to protect your personal information the system will time you out and you will have to start over if you leave the system idle for 30 minutes. All new applicants will need to submit a recommendation form by someone outside the Camp/Church community and conduct a phone interview. If you would like the coupon code to waive the $20 application fee please email campagape@gmail.com. All volunteers and visitors will be required to have completed 6 Armatus online training modules (provided at no cost). Returning staff may need to re-take some modules if the diocese updates them and we will let you know if that is the case.

Refer to our website for more information about volunteering and the volunteer selection process. For clarification about anything please ask us rather than do it incorrectly and have to re-do the application. Incorrect or incomplete applications will not be accepted.

Information for Volunteers under 18: Buddies (counselors) must be 18 years old at the time of camp. Volunteers in Training (VIT) must be at least 15 years old at the time of camp and these positions are on a space available basis each year only depending on the number of families and volunteers over 18. The application lists what positions are available for those under age 18. Volunteers who are under 18 years of age will need to apply with a parent present so that they can sign the application as the legal guardian. If an applicant was a minor previously and is now over 18 they will need to create a new account for themselves. Under 18 year old volunteers will be allowed to camp on campus overnight.

Reunion Day: We will be offering the bus to Reunion Day on Sunday, July 22nd. Attendance at reunion day is open to everyone, applications and the Armatus training modules are not required to visit on reunion day.

If anyone has questions or needs assistance please email campagape@gmail.com and if needed we are happy to set up a time for a phone call.

Screenagers Screening at St. Demetrios

Please join us on Saturday, May 19 from 2 pm to 5 pm for a special free screening and discussion of "Screenagers: Growing Up in a Digital Age"

More than any other time in history, technology is an ever-present part of our children's experience of the world. But what impact do social media, smart phones, video games and computers have on their development?

Physician and filmmaker Delaney Ruston saw that with her own kids and learned that the average kid spends 6.5 hours a day looking at screens. She wondered about the impact of all this time and about the friction occurring in homes and schools around negotiating screen time—friction she knew all too well.

In Screenagers, as with her award-winning documentaries on mental health, Delaney takes a deeply personal approach as she probes into the vulnerable corners of family life, including her own, to explore struggles over social media, video games, academics and internet addiction. Through poignant, and unexpectedly funny stories, along with surprising insights from authors, psychologists, and brain scientists, SCREENAGERS reveals how tech time impacts kids' development and offers solutions on how adults can empower kids to best navigate the digital world and find balance.

FR. MICHAEL JOHNSON RECEIVES NATIONAL BOY SCOUT HONOR MEDAL FOR SAVING LIFE

SEATTLE – On March 8, 2018, Fr. Michael Johnson, assistant priest at the Greek Orthodox Church of the Assumption received the National Boy Scouts of America Honor Medal for “unusual heroism in saving...life at considerable risk to self.”

Mike Quirk, Scout executive of the BSA’s Chief Seattle Council presented the award during the council’s annual meeting at the Museum of Flight. As far as is known, Fr. Michael is the first Orthodox priest ever to receive the BSA Honor Medal. Attending the ceremony were Fr. Michael’s daughters Maria Johnson and Alexia Cortes-Johnson, and Fr. Dean Kouldukis, presiding priest of Assumption Church.

Last October on a sunny autumn day a young mother was pushing a stroller with her five-month old son through a residential neighborhood in West Seattle. Suddenly, without warning, she was attacked from behind with a large knife. As it turned out, the attacker was a homeless woman, completely unknown to the victim. The knife cut into the victim’s face and the top of her head, and she went down on her knees. When she put up her arms to protect herself, the knife cut deeply into the top of her left hand, damaging some of the tendons.

At that moment, Fr. Michael, 79, came walking by, heard the screams and saw what was happening. He realized some immediate action was needed to keep the assailant from attacking again.

"I'm not a brave person, but there was nobody else. I just had to do it," Fr. Michael told a reporter later at the scene.

Stepping into the street, Fr. Michael took a position between the assailant and the victim. The assailant twice threatened him with the knife, telling him to get out of the way, but he held his ground. The stand-off continued for several minutes until the police, called by neighbors who also moved the child to safety, arrived and the assailant was apprehended and arrested. The mother was taken to the hospital, and fortunately, all her wounds eventually healed.

"I'm so grateful the Lord put you there," the victim said to Fr. Michael during a joint television interview several days later.

In a letter read by Fr. Kouldukis at the award ceremony, Metropolitan Gerasimos of San Francisco echoed those same thoughts in praising Fr. Michael’s heroism. “You were exactly where God wanted you to be, as a faithful man and servant, coming to the aid of innocent victims.” His Eminence noted, adding

“You remained calm in the face of danger, placing yourself in harm’s way, so as to defuse a serious and volatile situation.”

A 54-year veteran of the Boy Scout program, Fr. Michael earned the rank of Eagle Scout in his youth. As an adult, he has organized, led and promoted Orthodox Scout troops. He received the Silver Beaver award from the Chief Seattle Council in 2004, and in the same year, the Prophet Elias award from the Orthodox Church. For many years, he has also served as the Pacific Northwest Outreach Coordinator for the Eastern Orthodox Committee on Scouting.

Bookstore News - Holy Week & Pascha

Great and Holy Pascha

I was 12 years old when I received my own Holy Week - Easter service book. It was a gift from my mother. I was thrilled to have my own book and used it to follow along with the service, each night of Holy Week. I remember very well how adult I felt! Almost 30 years later, I still have my service book and I treasure the inscription my mom wrote on the inside cover. She hoped my service book and I would grow old together and that the holy Orthodox faith would always guide, guard and sustain me.

The Bookstore has nice Pascha gift items for loved ones, godchildren and family members; items that may be enjoyed for years to come or spark a new tradition. A fresh stock of Holy Week - Easter service books have arrived and there are also children's Easter books including Esther's

Easter Dress by Posner and Kafarakis and Holy Week and Pascha by Briere, a full color book with beautiful icons and illustrations. Remember to pick up your red egg dye, imported from Greece, and your Pascha greeting cards, while supplies last.

There are feast day icons for sale in various sizes including the Crucifixion and Resurrection as well as a variety of icons of Christ including the Prayer in Gethsemane.

Stop by after church to see all of our Lenten and Pascha books, icons and gifts.

see Him hanging on the cross. He shares our flesh and blood in order that "...through death He might destroy him who had the power of death" (Hebrews 2:14). Jesus Christ, the Son of God, was born into the world for this very purpose, in order to destroy every lasting remnant of fear, death, and suffering. The kingdom of the devil had held us in bondage, but the icon of the Resurrection, reveals the destruction of Hell! Gates, bars, locks and chains are all strewn about, shattered, and He Who assumed our flesh and blood stands in triumph revealing God's great victory, and ours.

Let us run to Holy Week, to not just remember or meditate on these things, but to participate in them. Let us fall down before Him and give thanks and glory to Him Who, having overturned the order of nature, now reorders our nature for all eternity.

Καλή Ανάσταση! (A good and blessed Resurrection to all of us!)

In Christ's love,

+Fr. Photios

Leaving Your Legacy - The Eternal Light Society

The major focus of Stewardship in parishes, including here at St. Demetrios, is usually on current offering of time, talent, and treasure. However, just as important are thinking and planning ahead to establish a legacy for the time when we repose in the Lord and leave this earth.

Over the years, the Lord has put in the hearts of our faithful stewards to bless St. Demetrios parish with their generous bequests and other planned gifts. During his time as Parish Council President several years ago, George Constantine undertook to recognize these individuals as members of the Eternal Light Society with a special display board in the hall near the church office. It is our objective to revive the work of the previous Council to recognize bequests and planned gifts and to make our current parishioners aware of these types of lasting gift opportunities.

There are a number of ways to provide for the parish as part of your estate plan and thus help fund the ministries and other needs of St. Demetrios for many years ahead. In some cases, planned giving can offer both immediate and/or estate tax benefits depending on current laws and regulations.

Among the potential methods you can consider for a planned gift to our church are:

- Bequest
- Matching Gift
- Gift of Cash
- Gift of Securities
- Gift of Life Insurance
- Gift of Real Estate
- Qualified Retirement Plans (IRA, 401k, etc.)
- Charitable Gift Annuity
- Deferred Gift Annuity
- Charitable Lead Trust
- Charitable Remainder Trust

It is not the intent or scope of this brief article to present specific details as to how each of these opportunities might be arranged in your individual circumstances through your will and other documents. You should always seek advice from legal and financial planning professionals.

Another aspect of end of life planning to consider is your medical directive document, often called a “living will.” You should be sure that your directive represents your Orthodox Christian beliefs.

In conjunction with our Parish Council, the Stewardship Committee is developing more information on the Eternal Light Society and planned giving to St. Demetrios Church, which we will be presenting in future communications.

Meanwhile, please consider how you will leave your legacy in our beloved parish.

Thank you.
