Join Alabama Extension, the Auburn University College of Agriculture, and the Alabama Agricultural Experiment Station at one of the upcoming seminars for the 2018 Alabama Agricultural Outlook. This is a great opportunity for producers and agribusinesses to learn more about the new Farm and Agribusiness Extension Team and get updates on the current situation in Alabama agriculture and expectations for 2018.

Registration will begin at 8 a.m. at each location with a light breakfast provided. Presentations will conclude at 10:30 a.m.
