Benefits Of Microchipping Your Pet

1. Microchips are with your pet wherever they go. It is easy for a pet to lose a collar or tag whenever they get lost, but a microchip is meant to stay with your pet no matter what!

2. If your pet is stolen, the thief cannot take a microchip out of your pet. While identification tags are easily removed, microchips are permanent.

3. Pets with microchips have a better chance of being reunited with their owner if they are lost.

4. Veterinarians and Animal Shelters have microchip scanners that are capable of reading a variety of microchips which gives you a better chance of being reunited with your lost pet.

5. Microchips are used universally, so no matter what part of the country your pet is lost in, your pet's microchip can be read by a universal microchip scanner.
