

Generation GF Northern NJ Presents...

A Free Event for Gluten-Free Kids and Their Families!

Tuesday, March 7, 2017, 6:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m.

Dorothy B. Kraft Center, 15 Essex Road, Paramus, NJ 07652

Special Guest: Dr. Amy R. DeFelice, MD, Associate Professor of Pediatrics, Celiac Disease Center at Columbia University

We are delighted to have Dr. Amy R. DeFelice, MD—a pediatric gastroenterologist at the Celiac Disease Center at Columbia University and director of Nutrition Support Services—speaking at our March meeting. Dr. DeFelice will engage us with the most current information on celiac disease in children, including her recommendations for its treatment and management, providing welcome guidance for anyone who is gluten-free.

There will be craft activities for the children, and gluten-free samples will be provided by Foods By George and ShopRite of Ramsey.

To register, please email GenerationGF.NorthernNJ@gluten.org.
