

8th Annual Day of Caring

Ready to Learn

kicking off our
70th annual Campaign

Saturday, September 16, 2017
9:00 a.m. – Noon

Gettysburg Times
1570 Fairfield Rd., Gettysburg

Volunteers will work in teams creating 650 Ready To Learn backpacks.

Each back pack will feature the book, "Y is for Yum, Yum, Yum", a fruit and veggies alphabook that enhances phonemic awareness, as well as life science and healthy eating. The back pack will also contain other related items and activities designed to make reading enjoyable and interactive.

The backpacks will be distributed to children, ages 3 – 5, attending Head Start and Pre-Count classrooms, and early learning centers serving low income families throughout Adams County.

United Way Ready To Learn backpacks are a fun, simple way to make reading fun for both the child and the adult who is reading to the child. It's a fun, simple solution.

To volunteer call (717) 334-5809 or email emessinger@uwadams.org

Sponsored by

