

Community Engagement Program at the International Institute of St. Louis to work directly with the New Americans. Congregation Shaare Emeth is one of a number of faith based organizations that is working with the IISTL to welcome New Americans. Opportunities include but are not limited to helping set up apartments, home visitor, client training to use our bank system and helping with resumes and job interviews.

1. In order to volunteer you must attend one of the training sessions at The International Institute located at 3401 Arsenal. The Institute will conduct training sessions every month on the first and third Wednesdays. The first Wednesday of the month, the training is from 2:00-4:00pm. The third Wednesday of the month, the training is from 5:30-7:30pm. PLEASE LET DEBBIE BRAM KNOW WHICH training session you will attend dbram@sestl.org. She will notify the Institute.
2. Please bring $10.00 in cash for a police background check. If you have already attended a session and registered with the Institute then it is not necessary to attend a second session.
3. If you have already been contacted by the Institute, please email Stan Shanker @ sdshanker@gmail.com and let him know. We are keeping a list of everyone in our congregation who is participating in this important work.
