

11th Annual Stephan M. Salzberg Memorial Lecture

“The Ethics of Inclusion”

Shelley Moore, M.Ed

Shelley Moore is a dynamic speaker and educator with a deep commitment to inclusion. Her research interests integrate theory and practice of inclusive education, special education, curriculum, and teacher professional development. She is particularly interested in how students with developmental and intellectual disabilities can be included meaningfully while also contributing to the learning of their peers.

Thursday May 18, 2017
4:00 to 6:00 pm

Gymnasium
Sunny Hill Health Centre
3644 Slocan Street (at East 21st Ave) Vancouver

4:00 to 4:30 pm: Light refreshments on site

4:30pm: Telehealth begins

4:30 to 6:00 pm: Presentation & Questions

To reserve a seat, please contact Anitpal.Dhadwal@cw.bc.ca or 604.875.2345 X4029 by May 8, 2017

Hosted & Sponsored by the Sunny Hill Ethics Committee and the C&W Ethics Services Department