

MSHP PHARMACY RESIDENT/FELLOW RESEARCH PROJECT AWARD – 2017 APPLICATION FORM

Award Description:

Recognizes an outstanding residency research project. All Massachusetts-based pharmacy residents and fellows are invited to submit projects to be considered for the MSHP Pharmacy Resident/Fellow Research Project Award. The objective of this award is to promote innovation in the profession through the development of creative solutions to current problems. This new annual award will be given to a pharmacy resident or fellow who has identified a specific problem related to health-system pharmacy practice and has proposed an innovative solution. The outcome must have a positive impact on patient care. Applications must contain a detailed description of the following (please attach separate document with specific details):

1. Subject: Identify an issue or problem, explain its impact on patient care, and describe potential consequences of not improving the situation or of solving the problem.
2. Background: Provide evidence of the possible impact of your specific issue or problem on patient care. This should include your background research
3. Project: Describe your proposed intervention and how it will solve the identified issue or problem
4. Outcome: Describe anticipated time of completion and expected impact
5. Presentation: Please indicate if this has already been presented or when and where it is going to be presented.

To apply, you must include a detailed project description, a project summary, current curriculum vitae, and a letter of support from your residency director or your project preceptor. Applicants may be asked to appear before the awards committee. Applicant must be a member of MSHP.
