

Macbeth comes to the library

Shakespeare's eerie tale of political ambition will be presented by the Hudson Shakespeare Company on Saturday, Oct. 28 at 2 p.m. in the Bloomfield Public Library theater. The plot revolves around a Scottish general whom witches prophecy to become king. Overwhelmed by resultant ambition and a power-hungry wife, Macbeth murders the reigning king and seizes the throne, only to become wracked with guilt, paranoia, and more murders to protect himself from suspicion. The bloodbath and ensuing war take Macbeth and his wife to madness and death. Entry is free. For details, call the library at (973) 566-6200.
