

Jazz it up with Dr. Dubious

If you aren't dancing, you'll be actively toe-tapping when Dr. Dubious and the Agnostics come to the library on Saturday, Feb. 11 for a free 2 p.m. concert. The seven-piece Dixieland jazz band plays New Orleans and Chicago-style jazz of the 1920s and 1930s. Horns, rhythm and vocals define this high-energy band that performs throughout the tri-state area. The band features female vocals by piano player Karen Bartholomew, and male vocals by the Doctor himself, Tom Duncan.

February Book Club Feature

"The Little Way of Ruthie Leming," by Rod Dreher

A compelling memoir will be the topic at the book club's Feb. 6 meeting at 6:45 p.m. Author Dreher recalls growing up in small-town Louisiana, a place he couldn't wait to leave – the place where his sister Ruthie married and taught school. Twenty years later, as Ruthie is dying of cancer, Rod returns home, astonished to encounter his sister's serenity and the loving support of friends, neighbors and the extended family he rejected. In reconnecting, the sophisticated journalist finds balance and peace. To reserve a copy, call (973) 566-6200, x219.
