Last month we asked - What is your top concern regarding people living at or below the poverty line in our Central Alberta community?

The number one answer was that families are going hungry (41% of responses). We know that the latest unemployment rate means that more families are struggling to pay their bills. If you or someone you know is struggling to buy food, pay the rent/mortgage or thinking about using a payday lenders to make ends meet, you can find local resources and supports by contacting 211.
