

SAN JOSE POLICE CHAPLAINCY

The San Jose Police Chaplaincy program was founded by a group of police officers in 1977. The objective was to provide a service for members and families of the San Jose Police Department. The program operates with the approval and support of the SJPD Administration and the San Jose Police Officers' Association.

Currently, there are two full time chaplains; Chaplain Jim Becknall and Chaplain Bryan Allen. They are available to assist any member, family member, or retired member of the San Jose police Department regardless of religious beliefs. Chaplain Becknall also coordinates the Community Chaplains Program.

The chaplains take part in many departmental functions such as promotion and graduation ceremonies; they assist during times of crisis and also counsels and supports the San Jose Police community. These chaplains are not on the city payroll.

This is where you can help! The Chaplaincy program is funded only by gifts and contributions. What are needed are commitments to give regularly in order to support this program that has and will continue to assist personnel within the San Jose Police community. Your financial gift is fully tax deductible as well.
