Ministry of the Laity

Lay Servant training prepares the laity to be in ministry through caring, communication and leadership. The key emphasis of the Lay Servant Training is to equip people to grow as Disciples of Jesus Christ with increasing confidence to teach, do visitation, lead committees, serve on leadership teams, lead small group ministry and grow in personal understanding of God's call on their life.

REGISTRATION DEADLINE: September 30th

Registrations received after the 30th will be returned as participants will not have time to receive materials and prepare for the course.
