

IMPROV IN A PEAR TREE

By Emily Shuel

Thursday, Nov. 30th at 7pm in Egan Hall

Going home for the holidays is a special sort of adventure full of road trips, family traditions and the crazy characters we call friends and family.

This year, Taproot's Improv Team is bringing you the story of a pair of newlyweds sharing their first Christmas. Using suggestions from the audience, the actors create the characters, traditions and circumstances to create a hilarious and unexpected holiday story you won't forget.

No two performances are the same!

Improv in a Pear Tree is written by Emily Shuel and directed by Danny Walter.

The performance is free!

Please register on the Parish website www.stjohnsea.org or by calling the parish office at 206-782-2810.

About Taproot Theatre Company

Taproot Theatre Company is a professional, nonprofit theatre company with a multi-faceted production program. Founded in 1976, Taproot Theatre serves the Pacific Northwest with Jewell Mainstage Productions, Isaac Studio Theatre Productions, Touring Productions and the Acting Studio. Taproot Theatre Company creates theatre experiences to brighten the spirit, engage the mind and deepen the understanding of the world around us while inspiring imagination, conversation and hope. Taproot Theatre's Road Company has toured dynamic social-issue plays to over 1 million students throughout the Pacific Northwest since its inception in 1985.
