

Bio

Kathleen Cain

Kathleen Cain
Chief Financial Officer, Rady Children's Hospital

Kathleen Cain is the Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Rady Children's Hospital and Health Center in San Diego. Kathleen has an extensive career as a healthcare CFO for a variety of hospitals, both public and private. Her career within California includes experience as CFO at UCSF Benioff Childrens Hospital, Oakland; Saint Agnes Medical Center, Fresno; Eden Medical Center, Castro Valley; and Community Hospital Sonoma County, Santa Rosa. For six years, she was a Regional CFO responsible for three public hospitals in Hawaii.

Kathy has served as a director of the Northern California and Hawaii Chapters of the Healthcare Financial Management Association and is a Past President of the Northern California Chapter. She also served on the National Advisory Council and has been an active participant in HFMA's Thought Leadership program. She completed the HFMA Executive Program.

She served two years on the California Hospital Association Board. Ms. Cain is actively involved in the American Cancer Society and was a California Division board member and former Secretary/Treasurer.

She holds a Master of Healthcare Administration from The Ohio State University and a B.A. from Indiana University. She and her husband, Ed Carrithers reside in Lakeside.