

Chad Mulvany , FHFMA

Chad is HFMA's Director, Healthcare Finance Policy, Strategy and Development. Based in Washington, DC, he is responsible for analyzing the implications of legislative and regulatory developments on healthcare providers and is also a contributor to HFMA's Value Project research. Chad has extensive revenue cycle and reimbursement experience, working as both an internal and external consultant to large healthcare systems. Prior to joining HFMA, he helped Fortune 500 companies reengineer their innovation and marketing processes as a consultant at the Corporate Executive Board.

Chad is a regular columnist in hfm, HFMA's flagship magazine, and speaks frequently on issues related to health reform and health system change. A Fellow of HFMA, Chad served as a board member with the Virginia Chapter of HFMA. Additional areas of focus include Medicare and IRS compliance, CMS and MedPAC guidelines and trends, and strategic planning.