Susan Taylor, JD, FACHE
Chief Executive Officer
College Hospital

Mrs. Taylor has been employed with the College Hospital(s) healthcare system since September of 2005. Prior to this, she was an associate with a medical malpractice defense firm in Costa Mesa, California. Mrs. Taylor has represented numerous healthcare providers in litigation involving medical malpractice, elder abuse, personal injury, breach of contract, premises liability and insurance bad faith.

Mrs. Taylor received her law degree from Pepperdine University School of Law. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of California, Santa Barbara. She is licensed to practice law in the State of California and the State of Nevada. She has been admitted to the Federal and State Courts in both California and Nevada.

From September of 2005 through March of 2009, Mrs. Taylor served as General Counsel for College Health Enterprises. In that capacity, Mrs. Taylor was responsible for advising on the risk associated with the company's facilities; both from a liability and financial standpoint. She was also responsible for ensuring that all of the company's facilities were compliant with all State and Federal regulations, including the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and all Corporate Compliance regulations.

In March of 2009, Mrs. Taylor was appointed as Vice President of Managed Care for College Health Enterprises. In that capacity, Mrs. Taylor was responsible for negotiation and contract management with regard to numerous health plans (i.e., Blue Cross, Blue Shield) that maintain Service Provider Agreements with the company's facilities. She was also responsible for resolving conflicts between payors and providers, along with maintaining excellent relationships with the health plans. Mrs. Taylor was also responsible for a percentage of the combined gross revenue at College Hospital(s).

In July of 2010, Mrs. Taylor was appointed as Chief Executive Officer of College Hospital Costa Mesa, a 122-bed general acute care hospital located in Costa Mesa, California.

Mrs. Taylor is a member of the California Hospital Association, Hospital Association of Southern California, Nevada Bar Association and the California Bar Association. She is also a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives. Mrs. Taylor is a Board member and Board Chair of WHW, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to helping individuals find a job.
