

Partners in Prevention

Volume 18, Issue 12, December

Verisk's Robert Andrews and The Home Depot's Earl Madison Elected to Corporate Board

On November 2, the FLASH Board of Directors elected Verisk Insurance Solutions VP Robert Andrews and The Home Depot's National PRO Manager Earl Madison as voting directors by unanimous consent.

Mr. Andrews has nationwide operational oversight of all Verisk commercial property field data collection and has been with Verisk (ISO) since 1995, in which he has served as a regional manager, regional vice president, and vice president of Community Hazard Mitigation.

He holds a Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Bowling Green State University, and has additional certificates and advanced executive leadership training from the University of Virginia Darden School of Business, the Harvard Business School, and The Verisk Leadership Institute.

Mr. Madison is the National PRO Manager for the Southern Division of Home Depot, with responsibility for developing as well as maintaining strong corporate and field level relationships with large national accounts. He previously served as the Senior National Account Manager with HD Supply, and as the Enterprise Sales Manager for Home Depot.

Mr. Madison holds a Bachelor's Degree for Business Management from Augusta State University, and a Business Management Diploma from Cornell University.

"We are delighted that Robert and Earl have agreed to join our Board of Directors, and we are already benefitting from their contributions," said FLASH President and CEO Leslie Chapman-Henderson. "We look forward to growing our partnerships with their respective organizations as a result of their leadership."