Registration Now Available for the 2017 National Disaster Resilience Conference

Registration and hotel room booking has just opened for the FLASH 2017 National Disaster Resilience Conference October 25–27 at the Hyatt Regency in Atlanta.

The Conference will bring together the nation's foremost voices in the disaster safety and resilience movement to share best practices, inspire, collaborate, and create meaningful action. Attendees include leaders, professionals, and practitioners from a cross-section of organizations who share the FLASH partner's mission of strengthening homes and safeguarding families from disasters of all kinds.

Expert presenters will include representatives from AIR Worldwide, BASF Corporation, FEMA, GAO, ISO, MIT, State Farm Insurance Companies, The Weather Channel, and many more.

Conference topics will span the latest in science, policy, and practice to drive more resilient buildings and create disaster-resilient communities in the face of earthquakes, floods, hail, hurricanes, lightning, tornadoes, wildfires, and other natural disasters. Take advantage of the opportunity to support the 2017 National Disaster Resilience Conference by sponsoring this dynamic program of keynote speakers and informative panels. Join the 2017 sponsors BASF Corporation, the International Code Council, The Home Depot, ISO, Comfort Block, and Smart Vent to help underwrite this important event.
