

If I miss the deposit deadline, can I still go? Yes.

The deposit deadline listed in the package for the trip you chose is based on a suggested payment plan that would allow you to take advantage of payments spread out over time. We have sections of seats reserved on the plane and we accept deposits until those seats are filled. Once they are filled, we will look to reserve another section but cannot guarantee the same itinerary, price or direct flight. Seats are first come, first serve.
