

“Way to be!” Programs

Innovative Experiential Learning Student Workshops for K-8

Monster Problems to Solve (K-1)

- Walk in the shoes of another
- Listen to understand
- Work together to bring about a win/win solution

Kindness is the Key (2-3)

- Develop communication skills
- Cultivate empathy through practical experience
- Learn the Make-It-Right Formula

Winners Work Together (4-6)

- Discover the power of collaboration
- Realize each contribution is valuable
- Find the synergy in teamwork

Poverty Among Us (7-8)

- Empathize with those in difficult situations
- Empower student voice
- Make a difference to others

- ★ “Way to be!” program utilizes experiential strategies to bring Language Arts lessons to life, with an emphasis on Learning Skills and Social Emotional Learning
- ★ Students learn real life lessons without real life consequences through discovery and fun
- ★ Programs for the entire school include a parent workshop on Social/Emotional Learning

Pricing

Fall Price $250/half day

$500 for half day workshops with 1-2 classes (about $9.00/student)

To enrich your school achievement through cognition and affective learning, book “Way to be!” programs for your school today.

Margaret Boersma, OCT is an educational consultant, teacher, speaker and teaching artist passionate about transforming the education system. She specializes in social emotional learning empowering students to make a difference in the world. Her experiences as a teacher of K-8 allow her to adapt her methodology, training staff and students elevating self-esteem, communication skills and social/emotional learning inside the curriculum.

Website: www.margaretboersma.com Email: mb@margaretboersma.com; Phone: 647 881-6958