Calling all MPMSDC Members,
Certified MBEs, and Community Partners

Help us kick off the new year, during our annual "State of Minority Business: Economic Outlook Breakfast" and "Town Hall, Membership, and MBE Meeting" on Friday, February 24, 2017.

Join us for candid conversation and a landscape outlook of Minority Businesses with Efrain Gonzalez, Associate Director of the Minority Business Development Agency at the U.S. Department of Commerce. Learn how:

- The current political climate impacts your business;
- To access innovative solutions that address challenges faced by minority-owned businesses, such as access to capital, contracts, international markets and capacity building, and much more.

There is no cost to attend this breakfast meeting. Registration is required for all attendees. No walk-ins or on-site attendee substitutions will be allowed. Please bring a valid photo ID. Arrive early and allow a minimum of 10 minutes for processing. Doors open at 7:20 A.M.
