

Ode to Olga Menczer

For those of you who know this soul, our brightly shining star,
You may be focused on her challenging past, from which she's come so far.

Our teacher, our mentor, our confidante, our Queen Bee of the hive,
She teaches by example, how to love and how to thrive.

Her hug, her smile, her twinkling eyes, her deeply caring gaze,
Olga shows her honest love for all, in myriads of ways.
She may not be of tow'ring height, but it is plain to see,
Olga stands head and shoulders above the rest, a true Lady Liberty.

So, lift your glass of Southern Comfort to shout "L'chaim!" clearly,
"Biz Hundert un Tsvantsig", Olga! We will celebrate you yearly!
