7th Annual Economic & Real Estate Forecast Symposium

This is the can't-miss event for those involved in real estate. For seven years, the Economic & Real Estate Forecast Symposium has been the most highly attended real estate and economic conference in New Orleans. Programming is designed to appeal to both professionals and business people across the real estate field. Speakers include nationally-known business leaders and local experts in real estate, finance, government and academia. The focus is on opportunities - for you and for your clients - and how to maximize potential in the current real estate market.

Business Knowledge and Insight from Recognized Speakers

The Symposium provides the latest information on industry trends and offers real-world strategies for dealing with major challenges. It also provides face-to-face interaction with local business leaders and industry experts from across the country. The speakers focus on big picture economic issues, with sessions highlighting the most important developments in finance, demographics, developments, deals and the future of real estate. Tracked programming allows attendees to focus on the areas of real estate and business that matter to them.

Featured Speakers

At the 2017 Economic & Real Estate Forecast Symposium, featured speakers include: Dr. Lawrence Yun, Chief Economist and Senior Vice President of Research of the National Association of REALTORS; Jessica Dill, Analyst, Center for Real Estate Analytics, Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta; Rick Hasse, President of Latter & Blum Companies; Dr. Wade Ragas, MAI Real Property Associates; Robert Edgecombe, AICP; Jeff Anding, CMP, Vice President of External Affairs, New Orleans CVB; Chris Bonura, Director of Real Estate, Port of New Orleans; Guy Williams, President of Gulf Coast Bank; and Alton McRee, Chief Executive Officer and President of Fidelity Bank.

Real Estate Professionals

Over 400 real estate professionals attend this professional, high-powered event which continues to attract large audiences because of the quality and reputation of the speakers. The most important decision-makers in Louisiana examine how the political and economic environment will impact real estate and business today, and share their expert views on what lies ahead, providing the information and the perspective needed to have the competitive edge to prosper in our changing times.

Networking Event

Networking opportunities include a closing reception where attendees will socialize and enjoy New Orleans inspired cocktails and cuisine. The Economic & Real Estate Forecast Symposium will help you make the most of the current market, as you reconnect with former, present and future clients and colleagues.
