

Exciting News for Domestic and International Travelers Flying into Connecticut

Early in 2016, Bradley International Airport (BDL) introduced:

- Daily non-stop service to/from Denver
- Daily non-stop service to/from Los Angeles

- In September 2016, BDL premiered daily non-stop service to the international air hub, Dublin, Ireland via Aer Lingus. Click for the official BDL press announcement or to discover Connecticut with Aer Lingus.

- In October 2016, BDL opened the high-end “Bradley's Escape Lounge”, where passengers can pay to gain access, without needing to fly with a particular airline. It features unlimited, complimentary food and drink for breakfast, lunch and dinner created by chef Tyler Anderson, a three-time James Beard semi-finalist. Is Located after security checkpoints in Terminal A's East Concourse, amenities include stylish furnishings, private restrooms, flight information screens, free high-speed Wi-Fi, and newspapers and magazines. Admission is $45 per customer, with reservations available by phone or online for $40. Aer Lingus customers who are members of the Gold Circle Club or are flying in business class get complimentary use of the lounge.

For groups meeting in Hartford – the State's Capital City, CTTransit's Bradley Flier bus route goes from BDL directly to Downtown's Connecticut Convention Center and Union Station Transportation Center in Hartford – it costs only $1.75 one-way! Buses run back and forth seven-days-a-week, hourly from all terminals.

When visitors arrive in the city, they can hop aboard free dash shuttle buses, that continually loop the Downtown area every 15 minutes, stopping at the Connecticut Convention Center, major hotels and attractions. dash buses operate enhanced service during major conventions and city events.
