Anniversaries

The Mt. Kearsarge Indian Museum celebrates 25 years, Warner. During the month of May, the museum marked their 25th anniversary. This unique facility features art, baskets, pottery, bead and quill work and archaeological artifacts made by Native Americans. Guided tours begin with a short introductory video and continue through the museum's galleries. Group guides provide insightful information about the artifacts in each gallery and answer questions from the group.
